2. RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should carefully consider the risk factors set forth below as well as any other information included in the Prospectus, the relevant Final Terms and the relevant Summary (if any) prior to making any investment decision with respect to the Notes. The described risk factors may individually, or jointly, affect the Issuer's ability to meet the obligations under the Notes.

The Issuer has only described in the Prospectus the risk factors related to its business, activities and financial situation or prospects that it considers to be material and of which it is currently aware. There may be additional risks that the Issuer does not currently consider significant or currently not aware of, which may also have an adverse effect on business, activity, financial situation, prospects of the Issuer and its Group as well as the Issuer's ability to meet the obligations under the Notes.

The risk factors are presented in a limited number of categories depending on their nature. In each category, the most material risk factors are mentioned first.

2.1 Risk factors related to the Issuer and the Issuer's Group

Each of the Issuer related risks highlighted below could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's or its Group's business as well as the Issuer's, operations, financial situation or prospects which, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on its ability to meet the obligations under the Notes. In addition, each of the Issuer related risks highlighted below could adversely affect the trading price of the Notes or the rights of investors under the Notes and, as a result, investors could lose some or all of their investment.

The factors described below are also largely applicable to the entire Issuer's Group. However, the Issuer is not significantly dependent on its subsidiaries, it does not therefore specifically refer to risk factors related to the Issuer's Group or its subsidiaries.

Risk factors related to the Issuer and the Issuer's Group are divided into:

- Macroeconomic factors affecting the Issuer;
- Risks factors associated with the market, client sector and position in the Slovak banking market;
- Risk factors related to the Issuer's financial situation and creditworthiness; and
- Legal, regulatory and operational risk factors related to the Issuer.

Macroeconomic factors affecting the Issuer

The Issuer may be adversely affected by global financial and economic crises, impact of the conflict between Russia and Ukraine, sovereign debt issues, high inflation, the risk of one or more entries leaving the European Union or the Eurozone and other negative macroeconomic, political and market factors

The Issuer's financial situation, results, prospects and ability to meet the obligations under the Notes may be affected by changing conditions in the global financial markets, economic conditions generally and perceptions of those conditions and future economic prospects. Due to the interconnectedness of the global financial markets, the Eurozone and the Slovak economy, the unfavourable situation in the world and the Eurozone has an adverse impact on the Issuer's financial situation and prospects. The global economy is expected to continue its recovery in following quarters, however near to medium term outlook is clouded by various downside risks including Russian invasion of Ukraine, new virus waves and variants, high inflation, rising energy prices, persistent supply chain disruptions, monetary policy uncertainty and further geopolitical tensions. The Slovak economy continued to recover in 2021, however at lower pace than previously expected. In the final months of 2021, its performance was hampered by strong delta variant wave, rising energy prices and persistent supply chain disruptions including the global shortage of semiconductors that had significant negative impact on domestic automotive sector. Full-year GDP growth for 2021 reached 3 percent.¹ The recovery of the Slovak economy is then forecasted to continue over the years 2022 and 2023, however at lower pace than previously expected due to negative effect of war in Ukraine on Slovak economy². Similar to other European countries, consumer prices in Slovakia began to increase rapidly in second half of 2021 and their rise further accelerated in first months of 2022.³ On average, consumer prices rose 3.2 percent in 2021 from 2020. In March 2022, the year-on-year inflation rate in Slovakia reached 10.4%.⁴ Inflation may increase further in first half of 2022 and is forecasted to stay at elevated levels for most of 2022 and 2023.⁵ Labour market continued recovering in 2021, however unemployment rate did not yet fall to pre-pandemic levels.⁶

All macroeconomic expectations are put into significant uncertainty in light of the recent outbreak of military conflict between Russia and Ukraine, the biggest threat to international security since the Cold War. Although, the Issuer has no material direct exposure to Russia, Belarus or Ukraine, it is indirectly affected by the influence of the conflict on the economy of Slovakia (which is heavily export-oriented), the EU and on its parent company, RBI. Due to the close sensitivity of Slovakia on the supplies of natural gas from Russia via Ukraine, there is a risk that Slovakia might be potentially cut from the supply of the natural gas, the supply might be disrupted or it would be forced to pay a substantially higher price for it. This, together with high energy and oil prices, could possibly adversely affect Slovak households and corporates, which may in turn jeopardize their ability to satisfy their obligations vis-à-vis the Issuer as creditor. Limited number of Slovak-based clients of the Issuer conduct a business in Ukraine and Russia and could be negatively affected by the conflict. Furthermore, Slovakia, as Ukraine's direct neighbour, is one of the target country for migrants from Ukraine, which may put further pressure on the Slovak public finance while being potentially beneficial for domestic labour market. The EU, the United Kingdom and the USA have imposed extensive sanctions on Russia (while Crimea, Luhansk and Donetsk regions are already subject to sanctions), Belarus and certain individuals, banks and industries based in those countries. The sanctions and Russian countersanctions or other retaliatory measures however may also inflict direct or indirect harm on the economy of Slovakia, the EU or specific companies, some of which may be clients of the Issuer. All these risks may negatively affect the financial performance and prospects of the Issuer as well as stability of the Slovak and European banking and capital markets, access to liquidity and risk appetite of investors.

Furthermore, many European and other countries continue to struggle under large budget deficits or elevated debt levels, raising a concern of the market that some European and other countries may in the future be unable to repay outstanding debt. These countries may have difficulty obtaining funds if the markets concerned become too volatile, unavailable, or otherwise fail to fulfil their role.

Many European economies continue to face structural challenges as unemployment and high public debt levels, which, relative to European standards, results in unusually high political risk and polarisation of society. In addition, the persistent consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic worsened by economic impacts of Russian invasion of Ukraine such as elevated levels of inflation has had and still has a very strong impact on the functioning of economies in all directions.

The European Central Bank (ECB) has implemented its programme to purchase unlimited amounts of government notes of the Eurozone member states in order to prevent a further downturn and to restore growth as soon as possible and in response to concerns about the impact of the European sovereign debt crisis. The ECB presented several ways (programs) to significantly improve access and increase liquidity in the financial market. In response to pandemic downturn, ECB introduced more extraordinary measures to support the economy including the new flexible asset purchase programme (PEPP) that runs alongside APP and kept interest rates at record lows. The ultra-low interest environment creates further pressure on the financial sectors globally and also on the Slovak financial sector and the Issuer itself, as a result of the decline in interest income.

Rapidly rising inflation and relatively good state of European economies has put pressure on ECB to abandon its ultra-easy monetary policy. At the beginning of 2022, ECB clearly signalled its intention to tighten monetary policy by, in particular, discontinuing both asset purchases programmes and subsequently raising interest rates. Monetary policy stance of the ECB may shift in the future depending on inflation or other price stability indicators and economic growth. Given the complexity of current macroeconomic environment, these unprecedented policies may have other than anticipated effects in either direction fast and without prior notice. Changes in monetary policy may result also in increased volatility in debt and foreign exchange markets. Monetary policy may help to build significant exaggeration in various asset classes such as equity, housing and notes and these asset prices could also correct swiftly and markedly. Possible sharp falls in asset prices in any sector may have an adverse effect on the financial situation and profitability of the Issuer, whether due to direct losses or due to a loss of value of security.

The Issuer's performance will further depend especially on the state of the Slovak economy the performance of which is affected by prospects of economic and financial situation mainly in the European Union and the Eurozone, as described above. Owing to the high level of interconnection in the financial markets in the Eurozone, the departure from the European Monetary Union by one or more countries and/or the abandonment of the Euro as a currency could have material adverse effects on the existing contractual relations and the fulfilment of obligations by the Issuer and/or Issuer's customers and, thus, have an adverse impact on the Issuer's ability to duly meet its obligations under the Notes.

Impact of COVID-19 measures on the Issuer's business and financial situation

At the date of this Prospectus, the Issuer was not substantially negatively affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and at the same time did not face a significant increase in the volume of non-performing loans (NPLs) or enforcement proceedings in connection with debtors' defaults. The COVID-19 pandemic however had a significant impact on the creation of provisions and reserves in 2020. If the COVID-19 pandemic again causes the closure of the economy, within which the Slovak government would order the introduction of quarantine or closure of the Issuer's stone branches, this could affect the sale of those product categories that the Issuer primarily distributes through branches where the sales strategy is built on personal contact with customers.

On 8 December 2020, the Slovak Parliament has adopted an Act No. 421/2020 Coll., on temporary protection of entrepreneurs in economic hardship (the Act on Temporary Protection), which became effective on 1 January 2021. An entrepreneur, who has a centre of main interests in Slovakia, who meets certain statutory requirements, may apply for a temporary protection (for a 3-month term, which may be further extended) from its creditors. In order to benefit from the temporary protection, an entrepreneur must file an application with the relevant court, where the entrepreneur also confirms that a temporary protection has been approved by a majority of its creditors (calculated on the basis of the amount of their receivables). The main effects of granting the temporary protection include:

- (a) no commencement of bankruptcy proceedings;
- (b) no enforcement of pledge against the entrepreneur under the temporary protection; or
- (c) limited termination of the agreements with entrepreneurs under temporary protection.

Under the Act on Temporary Protection, any entrepreneur may apply for protection until 31 December 2022. As of the date of this Prospectus, the Issuer is not able to predict what the impact on the Issuer's obligors (and in consequence on the Issuer and its business) will be after termination of the temporary protection as significant number of them may still face financial difficulties and may end up insolvent and subject to bankruptcy or restructuring proceedings. This could have negative impact on the Issuer, its business and its financial condition.

Risks factors associated with the market, client sector and position in the Slovak banking marketThe Issuer's business, capital position and results of operations have been, and may continue to be significantly adversely affected by market risks

The Issuer faces the risk that market prices of its assets and liabilities or revenues will be adversely affected by changes in market conditions. The risk includes changes of interest rates, credit spreads of issuers of securities, foreign exchange rates, equity and debt price risks or market volatility.

Changes in interest rate levels, yield curves, rates and spreads may affect the Issuer's net interest income and margin. Decreasing interest rates often result in decreasing margins and consequently in decreasing net interest income. There is a risk, also with regard to the current economic situation as well as the regulation of the NBS in the area of providing loans, that the growth of the volume of provided loans will be slower in the future. The impact of changes in interest rates on the Issuer's net interest income depends on the relative amounts of assets and liabilities that are affected by the change in interest rates. Reductions in interest rates and margins may not affect the Issuer's refinancing costs to the same extent as they affect interest rates and margins on loans granted by the Issuer, because a credit institution's ability to make a corresponding reduction in the interest rate and margin it pays to its lenders is limited, in particular when interest rates on deposits are already very low. Additionally, there are legal restrictions on charging negative interest rates on deposit accounts and the Issuer's debtors may be motivated due to low or negative interest rates to do a full repayment of their obligations (e.g., loans with fixed interest rates) without any cost charging. As a result of the above, interest rate fluctuations and, in particular, decreasing interest rate margins could negatively affect the Issuer's net interest income and have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's ability to meet the obligations under the Notes.

The Issuer's risk management systems for the market risks to which its portfolios are exposed include measurement systems which may prove inadequate as it is difficult to predict changes in economic or market conditions with accuracy and to anticipate the effects that such changes could have on the Issuer's financial performance and business operations, in particular in cases of extreme and unforeseeable events. In times of market stress or other unforeseen circumstances, such as the extreme market conditions experienced in 2008 and 2009, previously uncorrelated indicators may become correlated, or previously correlated indicators may move in different directions. These changes in correlation can be exacerbated where other market participants are using risk or trading models with assumptions or algorithms that are similar to the Issuer's. In these and other cases, it may be difficult to reduce the Issuer's risk positions due to the activity of other market participants or widespread market dislocations, including circumstances where asset values are significantly declining, or no market exists for certain assets.

To the extent that the Issuer makes investments directly in assets that do not have an established liquid trading market or are otherwise subject to restrictions on sale or hedging, the Issuer may not be able to reduce its positions and therefore reduce its risk associated with such positions and as a result could suffer a loss that could affect its ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

The Issuer is exposed to the risk of decline in the value of real estate used as collateral to cover the Issuer's receivables

Although, as at the date of this Prospectus, the current real estate market in the Slovak Republic appears to be stable now, the Issuer's commercial and residential loan portfolios may suffer losses if property values decline in the future or, if as a result of deficiencies in the collateral management, the value of the security proves to be insufficient. The potential increasing unemployment rate could also lead to an increased number of non-performing loans and losses arising from commercial and consumer loans unrelated to real estate. If these risks were to materialise, it could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The decrease in residential real estate prices may also affect the value of the cover pool and the cover ratio of the Covered Notes, which, however, may not fall below 105% of the value of covered liabilities (see also the risk "In the case of exceptionally adverse circumstances in the bankruptcy of the Issuer, the assets in the cover may not be sufficient to fully cover all liabilities under the Covered Notes" in clause 2.2 of the Prospectus titled “Risk Factors Related to the Notes”). If property values decline in the future or, if as a result of deficiencies in the collateral management, the value of the security by property proves to be insufficient, the Issuer’s commercial and residential loan portfolios may suffer losses and it could have a negative effect on the Issuer’s business, financial situation, results of operations and prospects.

Customer relations and reputation risk

As in case of any credit institution, the Issuer’s business involves maintaining long-term relationships, reputation and trust with clients, media, counterparties, shareholders, investors or supervisors. The potential loss of good name and reputation in relation to the Issuer may have a negative impact on the acquisition of new deposits, the outflow of deposits, the availability of external financing, revenue growth and capital raising, and thus on the Issuer’s business, financial and economic condition and market position.

Competition on the Slovak banking market

The Issuer faces strong competition in Slovakia from other major Slovak banks owned by major international groups and several local players, who offer similar services to those of the Issuer. The Issuer also perceives increasing competition from new innovative financial companies (fintechs). Because of this competition, in particular, in the retail segment and the current low interest rate environment, net interest margins have historically been very low. Competition from fintechs may impact the Issuer’s non-interest revenues (fees). If the Issuer is not successful in facing such competition and/or the current extremely low interest rates (especially for housing loans) are maintained on the market, this may have a significant negative effect on the Issuer’s financial condition and results of operations.

The majority interest in the Issuer is owned by a sole shareholder and risks related to the business of the RBI Group might have a material adverse effect on its business

The Issuer is a member of the RBI Group and majority interest in it is indirectly owned and controlled by a sole shareholder, RBI. As in the case of other Slovak banks that are members of international groups, there are significant links between the Issuer and its shareholder and the entire RBI Group, whether it is access to capital, access to human and other resources and expertise, technology sharing or development, or reporting. Risks related to the business of the RBI Group and the markets on which it operates may therefore have a material adverse effect on the Issuer. Such group related risks include mainly the following:

- (a) Like the Issuer itself (see risk factor “The Issuer may be adversely affected by global financial and economic crises including the Eurozone debt crisis, the risk of one or more countries leaving the EU or the Eurozone and other negative macroeconomic and market factors”), also the whole RBI Group was and may continue to be adversely affected by global financial and economic crises, including the Eurozone debt crisis, the risk of one or more countries leaving the EU or the Eurozone and other negative macroeconomic and market environments, currently also due to the economic and legal effects of the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic. The RBI Group is particularly exposed to these risks in its home Austrian market and in the markets of Central, South-Eastern and Eastern Europe, where its activities are geographically concentrated.
- (b) As every banking group, the RBI Group faces credit risk (risk of non-performing loan) due to deteriorating economic situation or even regulatory intervention; the RBI Group also faces other risks common to the banking sector, such as new and tightening regulatory requirements (not only under the EU laws but also under the laws of other countries) and market risks, which include an environment of low interest rates and pressure on credit margins. Also, as many of the RBI Group’s operations are outside the Eurozone, the group faces significant currency risk and adverse exchange rate movements or exchange rate volatility may lead to a sudden deterioration in loan portfolio quality or value, asset value, losses from open foreign exchange positions or other adverse consequences on the financial situation and results of the RBI Group.
- (c) Some of the RBI Group’s markets, especially those outside the EU, are emerging markets with a relatively unstable legal and economic environment, poor law enforcement, unstable regulation and a relatively high risk of sudden and adverse government intervention, such as foreign exchange controls, interest rate caps, forced conversion of loans into domestic currency, moratorium on repayment of liabilities and the like.

These and other risks at the level of the RBI Group cannot be influenced by the Issuer. In case of an adverse impact on the RBI Group, even if only on a reputational level, it may have adverse consequences on the Issuer's financial situation, results and activities.

Risk factors related to the Issuer's financial situation and creditworthiness

The Issuer's liquidity and profitability would be significantly adversely affected should the Issuer be unable to access the capital markets, to raise deposits, to sell assets on favourable terms, or if there is a strong increase in its funding costs (liquidity risk)

The Issuer relies on client (mainly consumer) deposits, to meet a substantial portion of its funding requirements, mainly retail deposits, a significant proportion of which are on-demand deposits. Any material decrease in deposits could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's liquidity unless appropriate measures are taken, which may not be possible under economically advantageous terms and conditions, if at all. In addition, the Issuer may be unable to meet their respective payment obligations on a particular day and may have to obtain liquidity from the market at short notice and on unfavourable terms, or even fail to obtain liquidity from the market and, at the same time, be unable to generate sufficient alternative liquidity through the disposing of its assets. Loss of customer trust in the business or performance of the Issuer could result in unexpectedly high levels of loss for the Issuer's clients. Deposits could be withdrawn faster than the rate at which some of the Issuer's borrowers repay their loans, and lending obligations could be terminated. The Issuer's liquidity buffers may not be sufficient, and results of the Issuer's liquidity risk management models may lead to inadequate management measures. All of that might negatively affect the Issuer's ability to meet the obligations under the Notes.

Any deterioration, suspension or withdrawal of the credit rating of the Issuer or the Slovak Republic could result in increased funding costs, may damage customer perception and may have other material adverse effects on the Issuer

On 4 October 2021, Moody's Deutschland GmbH assigned the Issuer a credit rating and such rating is expected to be maintained by this entity or its affiliates established and registered in the EU pursuant to the CRA Regulation (Moody's). A credit rating constitutes an opinion of Moody's on the creditworthiness of the Issuer, i.e., an indicator of likelihood of a possible loss due to insolvency, delay in payments or incomplete payments to investors. However, the assigned credit rating does not express all risks and a situation may arise that would lead to losses of the Issuer, a negative impact on its results of operations, or on its ability to meet its obligations under the Notes. The credit rating cannot be considered as a recommendation to buy, hold or sell the Notes or any other securities issued by the Issuer.

A credit rating agency may downgrade, suspend or withdraw the credit rating of the Issuer, in particular, due to adverse macroeconomic developments, changes in the regulatory environment in Slovakia, company-specific developments or changes in its underlying assumptions. Rating agencies change or adjust their ratings methodologies from time to time. The assigned credit rating may be suspended or withdrawn, if the Issuer were to terminate the agreement with the rating agency or to determine that it would not be in its interest to continue to provide financial data to the rating agency. The credit rating of the Issuer could also be adversely affected by the soundness or perceived soundness of other financial institutions. Downgrading, suspension or withdrawal of the credit rating or publishing of negative information or prospects regarding the Slovak Republic can also result in the increased costs or restrictions of the Issuer's funding.

Downgrading of the credit rating of Issuer may have a negative effect on the market price of issued and outstanding Notes. Downgrading of the credit rating may lead to a restriction of access to funds, and consequently to higher refinancing costs. Since the Issuer is also dependent on the interbank market as a refinancing source, any funding rate increase caused by a downgrade, suspension or withdrawal of a credit rating may restrict its access to refinancing opportunities and have a significant effect on the Issuer's earnings. In particular a rating downgrade to below investment grade might restrict investors to invest in notes issued by the Issuer, leading to a reduced funding volume. Furthermore, a rating downgrade among others, has a material effect on the Issuer's business activity, e.g., reduce deposits, derivative business, fee business (e.g., custody and guarantee business), as well as might cause a severe disruption of its client base.

The Issuer may experience deterioration in credit quality, in particular, as a result, of financial crises or economic recessions or increased interest rates; The Issuer might suffer losses, as a result, of the actions of or deterioration in the commercial soundness of its borrowers and counterparties (credit risk/counterparty risk)

The Issuer is exposed to credit risk, i.e., the commercial soundness of a counterparty and the financial loss that such counterparty may cause to the Issuer, if it could not meet its contractual obligations vis-à-vis the Issuer. The value of provided security and the Issuer's ability to satisfy itself from that security have also an impact on the Issuer's credit risk.

The Issuer is exposed to the credit risk, particularly as regards its lending activities to retail and corporate customers. This exposes the Issuer to the risk of counterparty defaults, which have historically been higher during periods of economic downturn occurring at present. Potential deterioration in the credit quality provided by the Issuer and increases in non-performing loans may result in increased risk costs for the Issuer. Analyses and assumptions on which the risk costs are based may prove to be inadequate and may result in inaccurate predictions of credit performance. In the ordinary course of its business, the Issuer is exposed also to a risk of non-performance by counterparties in the financial services industry. This risk can arise through trading, lending, deposit-taking, derivative business, repos and securities lending transactions, clearance and settlement and many other activities and relationships with institutional clients.

Defaults by, or even concerns about potential defaults or a perceived lack of creditworthiness of, one or more financial institutions, or the financial industry, have led and could lead to significant market-wide liquidity problems, losses or defaults by other financial institutions as many financial institutions are inter-related due to trading, funding, clearing or other relationships. This risk is often referred to as "systemic risk" and it affects credit institutions and different types of intermediaries in the financial services industry. In addition to its other adverse effects, the materialisation of systemic risk could lead to an imminent need for the Issuer and other credit institutions in the market to raise additional liquidity or capital while at the same time making it more difficult to do so. Systemic risk could therefore have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations, liquidity and prospects.

The Issuer creates reserves for potential losses arising from default by a counterparty or credit risk. Should actual credit risk exceed estimates on which the Issuer has based net allocations to provisioning, the Issuer's loan loss reserves could be insufficient to cover losses. This would have a material adverse impact on its financial position and results of operations and could affect the Issuer's ability to meet the obligations under the Notes.

Legal, regulatory and operational risk factors related to the Issuer

Banking regulation and its changes could lead to an increase in capital requirements, the need to increase the volume of eligible liabilities for meeting the MREL requirement, the need to increase the volume of liabilities due to the liquidity situation and reduced profitability of the Issuer

Requirements and changes regarding adequate capitalisation and other indicators

In response to the financial crisis in Europe, the European banking sector has become subject to significant new regulations. The key document is the CRR/CRD IV package, by virtue of which the European Commission adopted the standards of the Bank for International Settlements. A set of measures was also adopted amending many of the existing provisions set out in CRD IV, CRR, BRRD and the SRM Regulations. Most of these rules apply from 28 June 2021. Key changes are (i) more risk-sensitive capital requirements, in particular in the area of market risk, counterparty credit risk, and for exposures to central counterparties; (ii) a binding leverage ratio to prevent institutions from excessive leverage; (iii) a binding net stable funding ratio to address the excessive reliance on short-term wholesale funding and to reduce long-term funding risk; and (iv) the total loss absorbing capacity (the TLAC) requirement for global systemically important banks and other credit institutions.

Because of the implementation of these measures, the Issuer is exposed to additional requirements for capital adequacy (e.g., in the form of capital buffers) and fulfilment of other indicators (e.g. in the area of liquidity). These requirements may cause the Issuer to incur additional costs and liabilities as a result of which the Issuer will have to change business strategy, or which may have other negative impact on its business, the offered products, services and the value of assets. The Issuer may not be able to increase its capital or eligible liabilities sufficiently and in a timely manner. If the Issuer is unable to meet its regulatory requirements for capital adequacy or eligible liabilities or other indicators, its credit ratings may drop and its cost of funding may increase, and/or the competent authorities may impose fines, penalties or other regulatory measures. These circumstances would have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition and results of its operations.

Bank recovery and resolution legislation

Directive 2014/59/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 (the BRRD) should also contribute to the stability of the banking sector. BRRD was implemented in Slovakia by Act No. 371/2014 Coll. on the resolution of crisis situations on the financial market, as amended (the Resolution Act). This act provides a framework for the recovery and resolution of the credit institutions' crisis situations and requires the institutions to prepare "recovery plans" setting out agreements and measures that can be used in the event of a substantial deterioration in the financial institution's position to restore its viability from a long-term perspective. The Issuer, as a major bank, is also subject to the single resolution mechanism (the SRM). Its role is to centralise the key competencies and resources for managing the credit institution's failure in the participating Member States of the Banking Union. The SRM is governed by: (i) Regulation (EU) No 806/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 July 2014 (the SRM Regulation) covering the main aspects of the mechanism and broadly replicating the BRRD rules on the recovery and resolution of credit institutions; and (ii) an intergovernmental agreement related to some specific aspects of the Single Resolution Fund. Under the SRM, the Single Resolution Board is primarily responsible for resolving crisis situations in close cooperation with the ECB, the European Commission and the national crisis resolution authorities in the event of a default (or potential default) of the Issuer as a significant subject under the direct supervision of the ECB if a trigger event occurred.

Such legislation concerning the Issuer as a bank is sector-specific and is much stricter than the normal insolvency and crisis regime concerning other business companies. The resolution body has the power to impose a number of other measures, in particular:

- (a) the power to transfer the rights, assets or obligations of the Issuer (including the Notes) to another company;
- (b) the power to reduce, including a reduction to zero, the principal amount or unpaid amount of the Issuer's eligible liabilities (including liabilities under the Notes, with the exception of the Covered Notes);
- (c) the ability to convert the Issuer's eligible liabilities (including liabilities under the Notes, with the exception of the Covered Notes) into ordinary shares or other equity instruments of the Issuer, relevant parent institution or bridging institution into which the assets, rights and liabilities are transferred;
- (d) the power to cancel the Notes (other than the Covered Notes) as debt instruments issued by the Issuer;
- (e) the power to require the Issuer or the parent company concerned to issue new shares or other equity instruments; and
- (f) the power to change the maturity of the Notes or the date of payment and the amount of interest on the Notes (other than the Covered Notes).

Exercising these powers of the resolution body is highly unpredictable and any proposal or expectation of such exercise could materially adversely affect the Issuer, its activities, financial situation and also the ability to meet the obligations under the Notes.

Measures taken under the Resolution Act may also have an adverse effect on debt instruments, including the Subordinated Notes, Senior Non-preferred Notes and, in certain circumstances, Senior Notes issued by the Issuer under the Programme. These adverse effects are described in more detail in clause 2.2 titled "Risk Factors Related to the Notes".

Minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL)

In order to ensure the effectiveness of bail-in and other tools for resolution of crisis situation, credit institutions must meet minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities (the so-called MREL) as determined by the relevant resolution authorities. The set of measures related to the reform of European banking also includes Directive (EU) 2019/879 amending the BRRD Directive (BRRD2) that has been implemented into the legal order of the Slovak Republic by the Resolution Act. BRRD2 introduces the full implementation of the TLAC standard and revises the existing MREL requirements. Other changes to the MREL framework include changes to the MREL calculation methodology, the criteria for eligible liabilities that can be considered as MREs, the introduction of internal MREs and other requirements for reporting and disclosure of information regarding institutions. A transitional period for full compliance with the MREL requirements is expected to be until 1 January 2024.

The Issuer has received a decision of the Single Resolution Board in April 2021 setting the MREL requirement for the Issuer's resolution group at 22.07% of its total risk exposure amount and 5.91% of its leverage ratio exposure. This target should be achieved by 1 January 2024. There is also transitional target of 15.55% of the Issuer's total risk exposure amount and 5.91% of its leverage ratio exposure, which the Issuer achieved by the pre-set date, 1 January 2022. These requirements are subject to regular reviews and may be adjusted in the future. The Issuer currently considers the MREL requirement set for the Issuer achievable, however its fulfilment will require issuance of new MREL eligible liabilities in years 2022 and 2023. There is also a risk that the Issuer ultimately will not be able to meet the MREL requirement, which could lead to higher refinancing costs and regulatory measures.

Stricter and/or new regulatory requirements may be adopted in the future, and the existing regulatory environment continues to evolve. Any such regulatory developments may expose the Issuer to additional costs and liabilities, which may require the Issuer to change its business strategy or otherwise have a negative impact on its business, the offered products and services as well as the value of its assets. If the Issuer is unable to comply with other regulatory requirements, its credit ratings may drop and its cost of funding may increase, and/or the competent authorities may impose fines, penalties or other regulatory measures. The occurrence of all such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial condition and results of its operations.

Changes in consumer protection laws and the application or interpretation of such laws might limit the fees and other pricing terms and conditions that the Issuer may charge for certain banking services and might also allow customers to claim back some of those fees already paid in the past

Changes in consumer protection laws or the interpretation of consumer protection laws by courts or governmental authorities could limit the amount of interest or fees that the Issuer may charge for the provision of some of its products and services and thereby result in lower commission or interest income. In the Slovak Republic, for example, there is a consideration cap for the provision of consumer loans and fees are regulated for the basic banking product, the so-called standard account, and also for early repayment of a housing loan. The Issuer has been a party to a number of civil and administrative proceedings initiated by customers, supervision authorities or consumer protection agencies and associations resulting in fines or abandoning of the enforcement of part of the interest or fees. The legal proceedings mainly relate to allegations that certain contractual provisions, particularly in respect of consumer loans, violate mandatory consumer protection laws and regulations. These allegations relate to the enforceability of certain fees as well as contractual provisions for the adjustment of interest and currency exchange rates. Moreover, any such changes in consumer protection laws or the interpretation of such laws by courts or governmental authorities could impair the Issuer's ability to offer certain products and services or to enforce certain contractual provisions and reduce the Issuer's net commission income and have an adverse effect on the results of its operations.

The evolving legal order of the Slovak Republic and related legislation may create an uncertain environment for investments and business activities and thus have a significant adverse effect on the Issuer

The legal infrastructure and the law enforcement system in the Slovak Republic are less developed compared to those in Western European countries. As of the date of this Prospectus, the Issuer is not a party to any legal, administrative or arbitration proceedings that may have or may have had in the recent past significant effects on its financial position or profitability. Lack of legal certainty, inability to achieve effective legal remedy in a timely manner or at all, delays in litigation and the risk of legal evolution and enforcement can lead to investment losses and significant adverse effects on business activities, the financial position, results of operations of the Issuer and its ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

Risk of changes in the tax framework and the introduction of a financial transaction tax

The future development of the Issuer's assets, financial and profit position depends on the tax framework. A change in legislation, case law, the administrative procedures and practice of tax authorities and other relevant public authorities to the detriment of the Issuer may have an adverse effect on its assets, financial and profit position. The Issuer is subject to complex tax regulations that in some cases may have only been in effect for a short period, are frequently amended or differently applied. The level of tax collection can also lead to the introduction of new taxes in order to increase tax revenues.

Within the European Union, there is still a proposal for a financial transaction tax (the FTT). Following the introduction of the FTT, financial transactions related to derivative contracts and all other financial transactions (e.g. the purchase and sale of shares, notes and similar securities, money market instruments or units in collective investment undertakings) might be taxed. The taxable amount will be everything which constitutes a consideration paid or owed from the counterparty or a third party in connection with this transaction. The planned deadline for the FTT introduction has been postponed several times in the past, and it is currently not clear either whether the FTT will be introduced in the proposed form, or at all. However, should the FTT be introduced, as a result of the higher taxes, it will have a negative impact on the Issuer's income and profitability.

Operational and strategic risk

The Issuer is also exposed to operational risks, such as the risk of a loss resulting from the failure, inadequacy of internal processes, systems or from external events. The Issuer is exposed to the risk of fraud by employees and third parties, the risk of unauthorised transactions, operational or administrative errors, data storage errors and errors resulting from the failure of information technology or telecommunications systems. Considering the high volume of transactions performed by the Issuer, misuse and errors may occur or be repeated before they are discovered or rectified. Deficiencies in the Issuer's internal processes and systems in detecting or containing such risks may result in unauthorised transactions or errors with an adverse effect on the Issuer's business, financial position, results of activities and prospects.

The Issuer is exposed to operational risk, which may arise because of an error in the execution, confirmation or settlement of transactions. The Issuer's business depends on the ability to process a large number of diverse and complex transactions which have an increasing volume and complexity and are not always confirmed in time. The Issuer's business is also dependent on the secure processing, storage and transmission of confidential and sensitive information. Employees, mistakes, negligence or fraud of employees, expose the Issuer's business to the risk of non-compliance with the set principles and rules. These steps could lead to legal sanctions, damage to reputation or financial damage.

The Issuer makes considerable efforts to protect its systems, networks and databases from possible attacks by third parties, physical damage to information systems and the prevention of other possible problems. If failures, system, network and database outages occur in the future, this may cause significant economic losses for the Issuer and its clients.

The Issuer is exposed to strategic risk, i.e., the risk of loss of profits or capital due to adverse developments in the business environment, incorrect business decisions or incorrect implementation of business decisions. Insufficient strategic risk management may have a negative impact on the Issuer's business and results of operation.

The Issuer's risk management strategies and internal control procedures may expose it to unidentified or unanticipated risks

The Issuer's risk management techniques and strategies have not and may not be fully effective in mitigating the Issuer's risk exposures in all economic market conditions and environments or against all types of risks. Risk management tools may fail to anticipate future significant risk exposures under market disruption conditions. In addition, the Issuer's quantitative modelling cannot consider all risks and is based on numerous assumptions regarding the overall environment, which may or may not prove to be correct. If statistical models incorrectly assumed factors or incorrectly evaluated them, risk exposures could arise. If such circumstances arise that the Issuer did not identify, anticipate or correctly evaluate in developing its statistical models, its losses could be higher than the maximum losses envisaged under its risk management systems and the Issuer could therefore experience significant unanticipated losses, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial position and results of activities.

The Issuer may have difficulty recruiting and retaining qualified employees

The Issuer's business and competitiveness on the Slovak market depend on its ability to retain existing employees and to recruit additional individuals who are not only familiar with the local market conditions but have the necessary qualifications and level of experience in banking. On the Slovak market, the number of individuals with such abilities is smaller than in Western European countries. Increasing competition for such employees from other financial institutions makes it more difficult to attract, retain them and may lead to rising labour costs in the future. Moreover, caps and restrictions under applicable banking regulations are imposed on salaries and bonuses paid to certain employees of the Issuer or its subsidiaries. These restrictions may limit the Issuer's ability to hire and retain qualified employees and could result in losses of qualified employees. If the Issuer is unable to attract and retain new talented employees or if competition for qualified employees increases its labour costs, this could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer's financial position and results of activities.

2.2 Risk factors related to the Notes

Risk factors related to the Notes are divided into:

- Risk factors related to the provisions and limitations in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes;
- Legal, regulatory and tax risk factors;
- Risk factors specific to the Covered Notes;
- Risk factors specific to the Subordinated Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes;
- Risk factors relating to the Green Notes and their use of proceeds; and
- Risk factors related to acquiring and trading in the Notes.

Risk factors related to the provisions and limitations in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes

No early maturity in the event of non-fulfilment of the Issuer's obligations, no joint representative

Pursuant to the Terms and Conditions and in line with the prevailing market practice for debt issuances by Slovak credit institutions, a default on Issuer's obligations under the Notes will not cause an early maturity (acceleration) of Issuer's obligations owed to the Holders of the Notes or the right of the Holders of the Notes to claim early redemption of the Notes. In the case of a payment default by the Issuer, the Holders of the Notes will have a right to sue the Issuer for payment, and in the case of the Covered Notes, they will also have the right to separate satisfaction in respect of the assets in the cover pool in potential execution proceedings. The Holder will not have the right to demand early redemption of the full principal amount. A default by the Issuer may trigger convening of the meeting of the Holders of the Notes, but there is no common representative of the Holders of the Notes and each Holder will have to enforce its rights against the Issuer individually.

Risk of the Notes with a fixed interest rate

Holders of these Notes are exposed to the risk that the price of these Notes will fall as a result of interest rate changes. While the nominal interest rate of the Notes is fixed during the life of the Notes, the actual interest rate on the capital market applied for the remaining maturity period of the Notes (for the purpose of this paragraph, the market interest rate) is subject to change. The change of the market interest rate also means the change of value of the Notes with a fixed interest rate, but in the opposite direction. Thus, if the market interest rate increases, the value of the Notes with a fixed interest rate usually drops to the level in which the interest on such Note is approximately equal to the market interest rate. If, on the contrary, the market interest rate decreases, the value of the Notes with the fixed interest rate usually increases to the level in which the interest on such Note is approximately equal to the market interest rate.

Risk of the Notes without interest income

The Holders of these Notes are exposed to the risk that the price of such Notes will fall as a result of changes in the interest rates, while the prices of these Notes are more volatile than prices of the Notes with a fixed interest rate and are likely to respond to a greater degree to market interest rate changes than interest bearing Notes with a similar maturity.

Risk of the Notes with interest rate structure

The Notes with an embedded interest rate structure are associated with the interest rate change risk, including:

- (a) the risk that the conversion of the original interest rate to the changed interest rate may result in a change in the price of the relevant Note, whereas such changed interest rate may be lower than the original interest rate, which may be less advantageous for the Holders than if such conversion did not take place,
- (b) the risk that if a conversion of the original interest rate to the changed interest rate is made, the determination of such adjusted interest rate may depend on the difference between the two reference rates with different maturity dates so the Holders must be aware that, over the life of the Notes, the

- yield curves may change in a different direction than could have been assumed, which may mean that the changed interest rates may be lower than originally foreseen due to changes in the reference rates;
- (c) the risk that in the conversion of the original interest rate to the changed interest rate, the high volatility of the reference rates may cause the changed interest rate to be significantly lower than originally assumed, which may also have a negative effect on the price of the Notes;
 - (d) the risk that, if the potential automatic conversion of the original interest rate to the changed interest rate may limit the growth in the market price of the Notes, e.g. the setting of the maximum interest rate that even in the case of favourably developing reference rates may cause the market price of the Notes not to increase significantly above the price at which the Notes will be payable. Early maturity of the Notes decided by the Issuer may arise in situations where the cost of financing is generally lower than when they are issued. In this case, the Holder may generally not be able to reinvest the funds acquired by the redemption of the Notes at interest rates that will be higher than the original interest rates on the Notes; they may also be significantly lower. Potential investors should consider the risk of reinvestment in the light of other, at that time available, investments and
 - (e) the risk that the Notes may contain a maximum interest rate, and the Holders will not be able to fully participate in the positive development of interest rates above the maximum interest rate. For this reason, the yield on the Notes may be significantly lower than with the Notes without a specified maximum interest rate.

Risk of the Notes with planned redemption after reaching a certain yield

Investors in the Notes with planned redemption must take into account that the Notes will be redeemed automatically upon reaching the predefined amount of interest paid. If the Notes are redeemed early, the investor bears the risk that the early redeemed principal amount cannot be re-invested under similar market circumstances with a similar yield. Moreover, the automatic redemption of the Notes after reaching a defined interest income may limit the market price of these Notes. Due to the maximum total amount of interest paid on these Notes, their market price will not increase significantly above the level of the price for which they are to be redeemed, even in a favourable market/interest environment.

Risk of financial benchmark and reference rate continuity

The Notes with a floating interest rate are usually volatile investments. The Holder of the Notes with a floating interest rate is exposed to the risk of interest rate fluctuations and uncertain interest income. As a result of interest rate fluctuations, it is not possible to determine in advance the yield on the Notes with a floating interest rate. If the Notes with a floating interest rate are structured so as to include so-called “caps” (i.e. the maximum interest rate), the so-called “floors” (i.e. the minimum interest rate), or any combination thereof or other similar related elements, their market price may change more than the market price of the Notes with a floating interest rate that do not include those elements. The effect of the “cap” is that the amount of interest never rises above a predefined threshold, so the Holder will not be able to benefit from any current advantageous development above the specified threshold. For this reason, the yield may be significantly lower than on the similar Notes with a floating interest rate without the “cap”.

Interest on the Notes with a floating rate of interest will be calculated by reference to one or several specific benchmark indices or swap rates provided by a relevant administrator. EURIBOR (Euro Interbank Offered Rate) and other interest rate indices which are deemed to be benchmarks are the subject of regulatory supervision and recent national and international regulatory recommendations and proposals for reform (such indices jointly the Benchmarks). The main legislation in this area is Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011. These new regulatory requirements and their changes, if any, may cause such Benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, or stop to be used, or have other consequences, which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes linked to such a Benchmark.

Benchmarks could also be discontinued entirely. If the Benchmark is discontinued or otherwise unavailable, the interest rate for the Notes with a floating interest rate linked to such a Benchmark will be determined for the relevant period by the procedure pursuant to clauses 6.6 and 6.7 of the Terms and Conditions and if such a procedure cannot be used, the Issuer may decide to redeem the affected Notes early. Any such procedure could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes.

MREL Eligible Notes and Subordinated Notes constituting Tier 2 capital of the Issuer exclude the right to set-off

It is not allowed to use set-off or netting of the Issuer's claims against the claims of the Holders of the Notes to repay the claims of the Senior Notes and Non-preferred Senior Notes issued as MREL Eligible Notes, which are not and must not be secured or subject to a guarantee or other arrangement favouring the claims of the MREL Eligible Notes within the hierarchy of claims.

The Subordinated Notes entail the exclusion of the right to set-off by virtue of law.

The available right to set-off mutual claims usually tends to decrease the credit risk between the parties; however, the Holders will not be able to use this positive effect. No Holder of the MREL Eligible Notes or Subordinated Notes will be entitled to set-off its claims under the Notes against any other possible claims, which the Issuer has vis-a-vis the Holder (e.g. in case of a loan provided by the Issuer as a bank to the Holder as a borrower).

Notes may be early redeemed by the Issuer prior to maturity for regulatory or tax reasons or in some cases at the option of the Issuer

The Issuer may, at its option, early redeem all but not some only of the MREL Eligible Notes and the Subordinated Notes constituting Tier 2 instruments of the Issuer at their principal amount, together with accrued interest (if any) for regulatory or tax reasons.

In addition, if such right is stated in the Terms and Conditions of the relevant Notes, the Issuer may, at its sole discretion, early redeem the relevant Notes before their stated maturity, on a specified Early Redemption Date at their principal amount plus accrued interest (if any). In each case of an early redemption, the conditions for early redemption and repurchase (as set out in the Terms and Conditions) have to be met.

The Issuer issues the Senior Notes, Non-preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes primarily for the purpose of meeting the minimum requirements for eligible liabilities. It is not possible to predict, whether such issued Notes will be permanently accepted for purposes of minimal requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities or if any further change in the laws or regulations of Slovak Republic or the EU will occur and so lead to the circumstances, in which the Issuer is able to opt for early redemption of such Notes.

There will be a probable commercial motivation of the Issuer to early redeem the Notes (subject to any relevant restrictions and conditions, including obtaining a permission by a resolution or supervision authority) when its cost of borrowing with similar parameters will be lower than the rate of interest on such Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the rate of interest on the early redeemed Notes and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time. Early redemption features are also likely to limit the market price of the Notes. During any period when the Issuer can redeem the Notes, the market price of the Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be early redeemed. This may also be true prior to any early redemption period if the market believes that the Notes may become eligible for early redemption in the near term.

Absence of independent calculation agent and paying agent resulting in a risk of potential conflict of interest

The Issuer will act as a calculation and paying agent (administrator). Such role, inter alia, enables the Issuer to make calculations in respect of the Notes (e.g. the calculation of the amount of yield to be paid) which are binding for the Holders. Unless a third party administrator is appointed, the Issuer will perform all calculations and payments to the Holders. Therefore, there will not be any independent calculation agent or payment administrator responsible for these tasks. Potential conflicts of interest may exist between the Issuer acting as a calculation agent and Holders, in particular with respect to certain determinations and judgements that the Issuer may make under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes that may influence amounts receivable by the Holders under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. This is in line with prevailing market practice for debt issuances by Slovak credit institutions in Slovak market and the Issuer has taken steps to prevent potential conflicts of interests in accordance with the applicable law. However, investors should be aware that they cannot rely on any impartial agents – third parties – if an Administrator is not appointed. This fact may affect the value of the Notes.

Indicated Aggregate Amount of the Issue of the Notes is not binding

The Aggregate Amount of the Issue of the Notes indicated in the relevant Final Terms represents the maximum Aggregate Amount of the Issue of such Notes. However, the actual aggregate principal amount of the Notes issued in this manner may be lower than the indicated Aggregate Amount of the Issue and may vary during the life of the Notes issued in this manner, depending, in particular, on the demand for such Notes and repurchases by the Issuer. Therefore, the indicated Aggregate Amount of the Issue of any Notes does not justify any conclusions with regard to their liquidity on the secondary market.

The Holders are exposed to the risk that the Issuer is not limited in issuing additional debt securities or creating additional liabilities

The Issuer is not limited to the amount of debt it may issue that may arise or which it can secure. The Issuer is not obliged to specifically inform the Holders about the issue, creation or securing of a further debt (with the exception of publishing regular financial reports). The issue, creation, or guarantee of a further debt may have an adverse effect on the market price of the Notes (including the Covered Notes) and the Issuer's ability to meet all its obligations arising from the issued Notes and may reduce the amount that the Holders would be able to obtain in the event of the Issuer's bankruptcy. If the Issuer's financial situation deteriorated, the Holders could suffer direct and materially negative consequences, including interruption in interest income or a reduction in the principal amount of the Notes and, in the event of liquidation of the Issuer, loss of the whole investment.

Legal, regulatory and tax risk factorsThe Notes are not covered by any (statutory or voluntary) protection scheme

The Notes are not covered by any statutory or protection scheme. In addition, no voluntary deposit guarantee scheme exists for the Notes. In the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, investors in the Notes therefore cannot rely on any (statutory or voluntary) protection scheme to compensate them for the loss of capital invested in the Notes and might lose their entire investment.

The Senior Notes, the Non-Preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes may be subject to a write-down or conversion to equity upon the occurrence of a certain trigger event, which may result in the Holders losing some or all of their investment in such Notes (statutory loss absorption)

The respective resolution authorities are in accordance with BRRD and its implementation to national law provided with resolution tools and resolution powers to achieve the resolution objectives.

The conditions for resolution are:

- (a) the determination that an institution is failing or likely to fail has been made by the competent authority or the resolution authority; and
- (b) as to the timing and other relevant circumstances, there is no reasonable prospect that any alternative private sector measures, including measures as a part of an institutional protection scheme, or supervisory action, including early intervention measures or the write-down or conversion of relevant capital instruments taken in respect of the institution, would prevent the failure of the institution within a reasonable timeframe; and
- (c) a resolution action is necessary in the public interest.

One of the resolution tools is the bail-in tool. When applying the bail-in tool, the resolution authority shall exercise the write-down and conversion powers in the following sequence in line with the BRRD:

- (i) Common Equity Tier 1 (CET 1) instruments;
- (ii) Additional Tier 1 (AT 1) instruments;
- (iii) Tier 2 instruments, including the Subordinated Notes constituting Tier 2 instruments of the Issuer;
- (iv) other subordinated debt that is not AT 1 or Tier 2 capital; and

- (v) the rest of bail-in-capable liabilities, which include Non-preferred Senior Notes and Senior Notes.

If a bail-in tool is applied to the Subordinated Notes, Non-preferred Senior Notes or the Senior Notes, their principal amount may be fully or partially written down or converted into equity instruments.

Subordination risk. In case of insolvency of the Issuer, deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims of the Holders under the Senior Notes, the Non-preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes.

Under Section 180a of the Bankruptcy Act, which implements Article 108 of the BRRD, in bankruptcy commenced over the Issuer's assets, the following insolvency hierarchy applies to claims of its creditors:

- (a) claims of the Deposit Protection Fund within the scope of compensation paid to depositors pursuant to Section 11(1) of Act No. 118/1996 Coll. on Protection of Deposits, as amended (the Deposit Protection Act) or within the scope of the funds provided to resolve the crisis situation pursuant to Section 13(4)(g) of the Deposit Protection Act;
- (b) claims under eligible deposits from natural persons and micro, small and medium-sized enterprises exceeding the coverage level provided for in protection of deposits laws;
- (c) claims of ordinary senior unsecured creditors (these include claims arising out of the Senior Notes);
- (d) unsecured claims arising out of debt instruments with explicitly stated lower ranking of satisfaction, these include claims arising out of the Non-preferred Senior Notes;
- (e) all subordinated claims out of liabilities that do not constitute Tier 2 capital of the Issuer; and
- (f) all subordinated claims arising out of debt instruments that constitute Tier 2 capital of the Issuer, these include claims arising out of the Subordinated Notes.

Therefore, in case of bankruptcy over the Issuer's assets, claims of Holders of the Senior Notes would rank lower to claims stated in paragraphs (a), (b) and Holders of the Senior Notes will be satisfied only after satisfaction in full of these senior claims.

Similarly in case of bankruptcy over the Issuer's assets, the claims of Holders of the Non-preferred Senior Notes would rank lower than the claims set out in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above and Holders of the Non-preferred Senior Notes would be satisfied only after full satisfaction of these senior claims, including claims of Holders of the (preferred) Senior Notes.

Finally, in case of bankruptcy over the Issuer's assets, the claims of Holders of the Subordinated Notes, which constitute Tier 2 capital of the Issuer, would rank lower than the claims set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) and the Holders of the Subordinated Notes will be satisfied only after full satisfaction of all such senior claims, including claims of Holders of the Senior Notes and Non-preferred Senior Notes.

Any rights of the Issuer to early redeem or repurchase the MREL Eligible Notes and Subordinated Notes constituting Tier 2 capital of the Issuer are subject to the prior permission of the resolution authority or supervisory authority

The CRR stipulates that the early redemption or repurchase of eligible liabilities instruments (including the MREL Eligible Notes) prior to the date of their contractual maturity is subject to the prior permission of relevant resolution or supervisory authority.

Under the CRR, relevant authority may only permit the Issuer to early redeem or repurchase eligible liabilities instruments such as the MREL Eligible Notes if certain conditions stipulated by the CRR are met. These conditions, as well as a number of other technical rules and standards relating to MREL applicable to the Issuer, should be taken into account by relevant authority in its assessment of whether or not to permit any early redemption or repurchase. It is uncertain how the relevant authority will apply these criteria in practice and such rules and standards may change during the term of such Notes. It is therefore difficult to predict whether, and if so, on what terms, the resolution authority will grant its prior permission for any early redemption or repurchase of the MREL Eligible Notes.

Furthermore, even if the Issuer would be granted the prior permission of relevant authority, any decision by the Issuer as to whether it will early redeem the MREL Eligible Notes will be made at the absolute discretion of the Issuer with regard to external factors such as the economic and market impact of exercising an early redemption right, regulatory capital requirements and prevailing market conditions. The Issuer reserves its right to exercise any of the early redemption right in relation to the MREL Eligible Notes and investors should therefore not expect, that the Issuer will exercise any early redemption or repurchase in relation to the MREL Eligible Notes.

Even stricter conditions of early redemption or repurchase apply to the Subordinated Notes constituting Tier 2 instruments of the Issuer. The early redemption and repurchase of such Subordinated Notes is always subject to the prior permission of the competent supervisory authority, which in the case of the Issuer is the ECB. Early redemption or repurchase of Subordinated Notes, as Tier 2 instruments, is possible only after meeting the conditions stipulated by the CRR.

Holders of the MREL Eligible Notes and the Subordinated Notes constituting Tier 2 instruments of the Issuer should be therefore aware that they are likely to bear the financial risks of an investment in such Notes until their final maturity.

Tax impact of the investment

A net income on the Notes may be diminished by the tax burden on the investment in the Notes. Interest on the Notes, or profits realised by the Holder upon the sale or repayment of the Notes, may be subject to taxation in the Holder's country of residence, in a country in which the transfer of the Notes takes place or in another country that is relevant in the situation in which the Holder is subject to tax. Official statements of tax authorities or court decisions regarding financial instruments as the Notes may not be available in certain countries. The Issuer advises investors to contact tax advisors for advice on the tax impact of an investment in the Notes.

Withholding tax risk

As at the date of this Prospectus, the yield on the Notes is not subject to any withholding tax, except for yield paid to taxpayers, who are individuals or taxpayers not incorporated or established for business purposes and NBS. With regard to frequent changes of tax regime, no established application practice exists. Tax regulations, subject to changes, create negative prospects for the predictability and stability of the Slovak tax environment. Potential changes regarding the withholding tax regime can negatively affect the expected yield on the Notes.

Denomination of financial activities of the Holder in a currency other than the currency in which the Notes will be issued and in which the Issuer will pay the Principal Amount and interest on the Notes, may give rise to exchange rate risks, especially in the case of adverse regulatory interference

The Issuer will pay the Principal Amount and interest on the Notes in the currency specified in the relevant Final Terms. This presents certain risk related to currency conversions if a Holder's financial activities are denominated in a currency other than the currency specified in the relevant Final Terms (the Holder's Currency). These risks include, in particular, risks related to the significant change of exchange rates (including changes due to the devaluation of the currency specified in the relevant Final Terms or the revaluation of the Holder's Currency) and risks related to the introduction of exchange rate measures and controls. An appreciation of the Holder's Currency relative to the currency specified in the relevant Final Terms with respect to the expression in the Holder's Currency would mean a decrease of (i) the interest income on the Notes; (ii) the Principal Amount; and (iii) the market value of the Notes.

Government authorities may introduce or exercise exchange rate measures and controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate; as a result, certain Holders, whose financial activities are denominated in a currency other than the currency specified in the relevant Final Terms, could receive lower interest on the Notes or a lower Principal Amount than expected.

Regulation applying to investment activities of certain investors may limit or fully preclude these investors from investing in the Notes

Investment activities of certain investors may be regulated under special, generally binding legal regulations and may be subject to supervision or control by competent public authorities. Each potential investor in the Notes should refer to its professional advisor to determine whether and to which extent the Notes represent an admissible investment, while taking into account the nature of the investor and the extent to which it is subject to restrictions on its own purchase or pledge of the Notes.

Payments on the Notes may be subject to U.S. withholding tax under FATCA

In certain circumstances, payments made under or in connection with the Notes may be subject to U.S. withholding tax pursuant to Sections 1471 – 1474 of the U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and related legislation, and international agreements on the implementation of FATCA, including the treaty entered into between the Slovak Republic and the United States of America.

FATCA may also affect payments made to custodians or intermediaries in the payment chain leading to the ultimate investor if any such custodian or intermediary generally is unable to receive payments free of FATCA withholding. It also may affect payment to any ultimate investor that is a financial institution that is not entitled to receive payments free of FATCA withholding, or an ultimate investor that fails to provide the trader (or other custodian or intermediary from which it receives payment) with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for the payments to be made free of FATCA withholding. Investors should choose the custodians or intermediaries with care (to ensure each is compliant with FATCA or other laws or agreements related to FATCA), and provide each custodian or intermediary with any information, forms, other documentation or consents that may be necessary for such custodian or intermediary to make a payment free of FATCA withholding. Investors should consult their own tax adviser to obtain a more detailed explanation of FATCA and how FATCA may affect them.

If withholding is required under FATCA, the Issuer will not be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to the withheld amounts.

Risk factors specific to the Covered Notes

In exceptionally adverse Issuer's bankruptcy situation, the cover pool assets may not be sufficient to fully cover all liabilities under the Covered Notes

The cover pool (in Slovak: krycí súbor) covering the liabilities of the Issuer under the Covered Notes will consist primarily of mortgage loans secured by way of a legally perfected first ranking mortgage in favour of the Issuer over the mortgaged property and certain substitute assets, such as cash and securities. All assets included in the cover pool must comply with the applicable requirements or criteria set out in the Act on Banks. In particular, for an individual mortgage loan eligible to be included in the cover pool must comply with the applicable requirements including, amongst other things, the loan-to-value limit under which the outstanding amount of principal under the loan may not exceed 80% of the value of mortgaged property, subject to limited exemptions. Also, the Issuer is required to perform regular testing of the value of the mortgaged properties and the total value of the cover pool assets must at all times be at least 105% of the value of all covered liabilities, whereby according to the legislation, the Issuer must calculate this cover ratio on the last day of each relevant month. These requirements will be observed in the substantially same manner also under Amendment to the Act on Banks No. 454/2021 Coll. (the CBD Implementing Act), which implements Directive (EU) 2019/2162 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 November 2019 on the issue of covered bonds and covered bond public supervision (EU Covered Bonds Directive). The CBD Implementing Act will enter into force on 8 July 2022.

In line with the applicable Slovak law requirements, the mortgaged property securing the mortgage loans in the cover pool is located in the Slovak Republic. These requirements will also apply in the future under the CBD Implementing Act. The value of the mortgaged property as well as the value of the mortgage loans included in the cover pool may reduce over time, in particular, in the event of a general downturn in the value of properties located in the Slovak Republic. In such cases, despite the relevant statutory safeguards and regulatory requirements under Section 67 et seq. of the Act on Banks, the value of the mortgage loans may become insufficient to provide full cover for the issued and outstanding Covered Notes. While the Issuer is solvent and operating its business, it will be obliged to include additional eligible assets in the cover pool in order to maintain the required cover ratio. In the case of bankruptcy, involuntary administration or similar situations when the Issuer's ability to generate additional eligible assets will be limited, the value of the cover pool assets may decrease below the required levels so that it may not be sufficient to fully cover all covered liabilities including those under the Covered Notes.

It should be also noted that due to the preregistration of the mortgage bonds issued by the Issuer before 1 January 2018 as described in clause 6.2 of the Prospectus below, the single common cover pool will also cover all the liabilities of the Issuer under those historic mortgage bonds. The claims of the Holders under the Covered Notes will rank pari passu with the claims of the holders of the historic mortgage bonds and all holders will have the same priority right with respect to the whole cover pool.

Finally, any substantial overall downturn in the value of real properties in the Slovak Republic could adversely affect the Issuer's results of operations, financial condition and business prospects and its ability to perform the obligations under the Covered Notes and the value of the cover pool.

Risk of extension of final maturity of the Covered Notes and risk of change of the issuer of the Covered Notes

In the event of bankruptcy or involuntary administration of the Issuer, the bankruptcy trustee or the involuntary administrator (each a trustee) of the Issuer will take over the operation of the programme of the covered notes and of the cover pool (the programme, as defined in the Act on Banks and not to be confused with the Programme under this Prospectus). The programme of covered notes (as defined in the Act on Banks) includes, generally, all assets in the cover pool as well as all obligations under the Covered Notes, mortgage bonds issued by the Issuer in the past, any other covered notes issued by the Issuer and other covered liabilities, such as hedging derivatives (if any) and related administrative contracts and functions. The trustee will be obliged to evaluate whether the operation of the covered notes programme does not cause the overall decrease of rate of satisfaction of the Holders of the Covered Notes. If the trustee reaches the conclusion that the operation of the programme may result in decrease of satisfaction of the Holders of the Covered Notes, it will have the obligation to notify the NBS of its intention to transfer the programme or its parts to another bank or several banks in the Slovak Republic and to attempt such transfer. As a result of the notification, the final maturity of the Covered Notes would be adjusted in accordance with Section 67 (10) and (11) of the Act on Banks (so-called "soft bullet extension") as follows: (i) during the first month from delivery of the transfer notification to the NBS, the maturity dates would not be adjusted, (ii) from the first day of the second month until the last day of the 12th month from delivery of the transfer proposal to the NBS, any final maturity date for principal amount payment under any Covered Notes falling into that period would be postponed by 12 months, and (iii) if the administrator requires a prolongation of the transfer period, any final maturity date for principal amount payment under the Covered Notes in the period of subsequent 12 months would be prolonged by a another 12 months. The same applies to final maturity dates already extended during the first prolongation period. The payments of yields and other conditions of the Covered Notes would not be affected, but the Holders will not receive any other compensation and will not have any remedies in respect of the extended maturity of the Covered Notes. Substantially the same soft bullet extension will apply under Section 82 of the Act on Banks as will be amended by the CBD Implementing Act. The new regime also specifies that the soft bullet extension may apply in the resolution proceedings and that the extension cannot result in the change of the original order of maturity of the outstanding tranches of the Covered Notes.

The soft bullet extension of the final maturity will be effective from the date of delivery of the programme transfer notification by the administrator to the NBS and will not be subject to any further approval or consent of the NBS. In the event no transfer is effected, the postponed maturities for principal amount payments would occur on the last day of the prolongation period.

It should be noted that the extension of the final maturities will not apply to maturities of the mortgage bonds issued before 1 January 2018. If the maturity date for any issue of mortgage bonds occurs during the transfer period, the trustee will have to pay the principal amount to the holders of the mortgage bonds under their original terms. The treatment of the mortgage bonds, however, can change under the CBD Implementing Act and the soft bullet extension may become applicable to the mortgage bonds as well, subject to certain conditions.

The transfer of the programme itself will be subject to prior approval of the NBS. If such a transfer is effected, the identity of the Issuer of the Covered Notes will change to the transferee bank, i.e. another bank in the Slovak Republic will become an obligor under the Covered Notes. This does not have an effect on the terms of the Covered Notes themselves, but the creditworthiness of the new issuer might be different from the creditworthiness of the Issuer.

In accordance with Section 55(10) of the Act on Banks and Section 195a(7) of the Bankruptcy Act, the consent of the Holders is not required in bankruptcy and involuntary administration scenarios in order for the transfer of the programme or its part to be valid and become effective.

Risk factors specific to Subordinated Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes

Obligations under the Subordinated Notes will only be fulfilled after all non-subordinated claims of creditors have been satisfied

Upon the Issuer's entry into liquidation, bankruptcy or restructuring, the receivable corresponding to the Issuer's obligations under the Subordinated Notes will be satisfied only after all other receivables have been satisfied (including, but not limited to, the Issuer's obligations under the Senior Notes, Covered Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes) other than receivables which are bound by the same or similar condition of subordination. Thus, in any such case, no sums under those obligations will be payable unless the claims of all unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer have been fully satisfied. If this occurs, the Issuer may not have enough assets remaining after such payments to pay amounts due under the relevant Subordinated Notes and the Holder of such Subordinated Notes could lose all or some of his investment. See also risk factor Subordination risk. In case of insolvency of the Issuer, deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims of the Holders under the Senior Notes, the Non-preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes above.

Similarly, if the Issuer gets into a crisis situation under the Resolution Act, as amended, including related regulations, the obligations of the Issuer from the Subordinated Notes may be subject to measures for resolution of the Issuer or its group, mainly a partial or full write-off or conversion into registered capital of the Issuer. Such measure may be adopted in respect of the Subordinated Notes, rather than other receivables (including, but not limited to, the Issuer's obligations under the Senior Notes, Covered Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes). This circumstance, too, may result in the Holders losing a part or their whole investment in the Subordinated Notes. See also risk factor The Senior Notes, the Non-Preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes may be subject to a write-down or conversion to equity upon the occurrence of a certain trigger event, which may result in the Holders losing some or all of their investment in such Notes (statutory loss absorption) above.

Senior Non-preferred Notes are subordinated to existing unsubordinated unsecured obligations

The Senior Non-preferred Notes have lower ranking and the claims arising out them will be satisfied in the Issuer's bankruptcy only after satisfaction of the preferred claims from protected and covered deposits (Section 180a(1) of the Bankruptcy Act) as well as all unsecured claims under Section 95(1) of the Bankruptcy Act, which also includes claims under the Senior Notes or other current unsecured obligations. On the contrary, the Senior Non-preferred Notes have a higher ranking in the bankruptcy than the Subordinated Notes. See also risk factor "Subordination risk. In case of insolvency of the Issuer, deposits and certain other claims have a higher ranking than claims of the Holders under the Senior Notes, the Non-preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes above".

The Senior Non-preferred Notes may, on the basis of a resolution body's decision, be subject to write-offs if a trigger event occurs. This may cause the Holders to lose part or all of the investment in the Notes (legal absorption of losses). Any partial or total write-off or conversion of the principal amount or unpaid interest of the Notes will not under legal regulation of the capitalisation instruments (bail-in) or the write-off and conversion constitute an event of breach of the Notes. This means that any amounts written off or converted in this manner will be irrevocably lost and the Holders will lose any claims arising therefrom, regardless of whether or not the financial position of the Issuer will be renewed. See also risk factor "The Senior Notes, the Non-Preferred Senior Notes as well as the Subordinated Notes may be subject to a write-down or conversion to equity upon the occurrence of a certain trigger event, which may result in the Holders losing some or all of their investment in such Notes (statutory loss absorption)" above.

Senior Non-preferred Notes are a new type of financial instruments for which there is no trade history and their regulation may change

There is no relevant business history regarding senior non-preferred debt instruments issued by Slovak financial institutions. Financial market participants, including rating agencies, are only at the early stages of risk assessment related to senior non-preferred obligations. In addition, the regulatory requirements associated with this type of the Notes are not yet stable. The value of these securities may become extremely volatile as soon as they are introduced on the financial market. It is possible that after a certain period of time the value of the Senior Non-preferred Notes will be lower than the investors assumed at the time of their issue by the Issuer. If this was the case, the Holders could suffer losses in respect of their investments in the Senior Non-preferred Notes.

Risk factors relating to the Green Notes and their use of proceeds

The use of proceeds from the Green Notes might not be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor

The Issuer intends to use proceeds from the Green Notes (i.e. the Notes designated as such in relevant Final Terms) for the purposes of financing or re-financing new or existing eligible loans providing distinct environmental benefits as defined in the Issuer's Green Bond Framework, which the Issuer may update or otherwise change from time to time (the Eligible Green Loans). The use of such proceeds to fund Eligible Green Loans might not satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates. Any such event or failure may have material adverse consequences for investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose.

If any such Notes are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated "green", "environmental" or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), such listing or admission might not satisfy, whether in whole, or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular, with regard to any direct or indirect environmental impact of projects financed by Eligible Green Loans. Furthermore, the criteria for such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. Any such listing or admission to trading might not be obtained in respect of any Notes issued as Green Notes or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading might not be maintained until maturity of the Green Notes.

If any Green Notes are no longer listed or admitted to trading on any stock exchange or regulated market, they may have a material adverse effect on the market price of those Notes and potentially on the market price of any other Notes, proceeds of which are designated to be used for financing of providing the Eligible Green Loans.

Green Notes might not satisfy any existing or future legislative or regulatory requirements

There is currently no binding or final definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes, a "green" or an equivalently-labelled project or as to what precise attributes are required for a particular project to be defined as "green" or such other equivalent label nor such a clear definition or consensus might develop over time. Regulation (EU) 2020/852 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 June 2020 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the Taxonomy Regulation) established the criteria for determining whether an economic activity qualifies as environmentally sustainable. Nevertheless, it is an area which has been, and continues to be, the subject of many and wide-ranging voluntary and regulatory initiatives to develop rules, guidelines, standards, taxonomies and objectives. The Issuer is exposed to risk that the Eligible Green Loans originally qualified in the Green Bond Framework as "Green" or equivalently labelled could be disqualified from the Green Bond Framework until the maturity of the Notes.

Any failure of the Issuer in the use of proceeds of the Green Notes for Eligible Green Loans does not give the Holders any rights or claims vis-à-vis the Issuer

There is a risk that projects financed in whole or in part by Eligible Green Loans may not be implemented in the specified manner or in a substantially such manner and/or according to a timetable. Such projects may not be completed on time or at all, or may be completed with results or conclusions other than those originally expected by the Issuer (even completely unrelated to the environmental benefits). In addition, the Issuer is exposed to the risk that adverse environmental and/or other impacts will occur during the implementation of projects or activities financed by Eligible Green Loans. There is also a risk that the Issuer could allocate proceeds raised from the Green Notes to incorrect Eligible Green Loans or change the allocation of proceeds to other Eligible Green Loans until the maturity of the Green Notes. Any such event or failure of the Issuer in allocating the proceeds of the Green Notes will not constitute an event of default under the Terms and Conditions.

Risk related to ratings and opinions of independent parties

Sustainalytics GmbH (Sustainalytics), a provider of environmental, social and governance (ESG) research and analysis provided a second party opinion on the Green Bond Framework. Sustainalytics evaluated the robustness and credibility of the Green Bond Framework and the intended use of proceeds in terms of its alignment with the relevant industry standards, including the Green Bond Principles 2018 (as amended from time to time). The suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the issue of any Notes issued as Green Notes and in particular, with any projects or activities financed by Eligible Green Loans to fulfil any environmental and/or other criteria, remains uncertain. Any such opinion may not address risks that may affect the market price of Notes issued as Green Notes or any project.

In the future, ESG risks related to the Issuer may also be assessed by credit rating agencies, inter alia, through ESG ratings. These ratings may differ between credit rating agencies due to different methodologies and may not indicate the current or future operating or financial performance of the Issuer or the future ability to repay the Green Notes, and will be and are current only as of the dates on which they were issued. The cancellation of the ESG rating may have an adverse effect on the Green Notes. Any such event and/or withdrawal of any opinion or certification, or any opinion or certification that confirms that the Issuer does not fully or partially comply with the matters on which such opinion or certification is based or certifies, may have a material adverse effect on the market price of such Green Notes; and potentially also on the market price of other Green Notes, proceeds of which are designated to be used for financing of providing the Eligible Green Loans.

Risk factors related to acquiring and trading in the NotesRating of the Notes may not adequately reflect all the risks of investing in the Notes, and may also result in its suspension, downgrade or withdrawal

If some Notes are assigned credit rating, it may not adequately reflect all the risks of investing in these Notes. Credit rating may be also suspended, downgraded or withdrawn. Such suspension, downgrade or withdrawal may have an adverse effect on the market value and trading price of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to purchase, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by a credit rating agency at any time.

Trading in the Notes may not be liquid and may be suspended

The capital market in the Slovak Republic is not sufficiently liquid. There is a risk with regard to the Issuer's intention to make an application to admit the Notes to trading on the regulated market of BSSE, that the Notes will not be actively traded. Even if the Notes will be actively traded, such activity may not be preserved during the entire life of the Notes. In cases of limited market activity, the market price and liquidity during the trading in the Notes may be significantly affected. The issues of mortgage notes issued by the Issuer in the past which are admitted to trading on the regulated free market of BSSE can serve as an example of low liquidity during the trading on the secondary market.

In the case of the issues of the Notes admitted to trading on a foreign regulated market, the liquidity of that issue's trading will be affected by the level of liquidity and business activity in the given market, however, this does not in itself guarantee investors that a sufficiently liquid market will be created for the Notes.

There is also a risk that trading in the Notes on relevant exchange may be suspended, interrupted or terminated for exceptional economic, regulatory or technical reasons, even without any fault or influence of the Issuer.

Risk of fluctuations in market price of the Notes

The Holders are at risk of the change of the market price of the Notes in the case of the sale of the Notes. The historical development of the prices of the Notes cannot serve as an indicator of the future development of the prices of any Notes. The development of market prices of the Notes depends on various factors, such as changes in market interest rate levels, the policies of central banks, overall economic developments, inflation rates, changes in taxation methods and the lack of or excess demand for the relevant Notes. Thus, the Holders are exposed to the risk of unfavourable developments in the market prices of the Notes they hold which may materialise if the Holders decide to sell them prior to their final maturity. The Holders must be aware that Notes may be issued at a price higher than the price of comparable Notes on the secondary market, which may increase the effect of the unfavourable market price development. If a Holder decides to hold the Notes up to their final maturity, the principal amount will be repaid at the amount set out in the relevant Final Terms.

Risk of reduced yield caused by transaction costs and depositary fees

The total return of the investment in the Notes may be affected by the fees mainly related to the acquisition, purchase or sale of the Notes. Therefore, the Issuer recommends that potential investors in the Notes become familiar with the fees charged related to the holding, purchase and sale of the Notes.

Fees and transaction costs reduce the yield an investor will realise on the investment in the Notes. When Notes are purchased, several types of incidental costs (including transaction fees and commissions) may be incurred and will have to be paid by the investor in addition to the then current market price of the Note. Similarly, when a Holder sells any Notes, such incidental costs will reduce the actual price the Holder will receive for each Note sold. These incidental costs may significantly reduce or even exclude the profitability of an investment in the Notes. For instance, credit institutions as a rule charge their clients commissions which are either fixed minimum commissions or pro-rata commissions depending on the order value. To the extent that additional – domestic or foreign – parties are involved in the execution of an order, including but not limited to domestic managers or brokers, Holders must take into account that they may also be charged for the brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third party costs).

Credit spread risk

Potential investors in the Notes must be aware that the Notes bear the risk of the Issuer's credit spread, which may increase during the life of the Notes, resulting in a decrease in the price of the Notes. Factors affecting the credit spread include, inter alia, the Issuer's creditworthiness and rating, probability of default, potential loss in the event of a default and the remaining term to maturity of the Notes. The liquidity rate, the general level of interest rates, overall economic developments and the currency in which the Notes are denominated may also have a negative effect on the credit spread.

Inflation risk

The Notes do not contain the inflation clause and the fair value of investment in the Notes may fall with the falling value of the currency due to inflation. Inflation also causes the reduction of real yield on the Notes. If the amount of inflation exceeds the amount of nominal yield on the Notes, the value of real yield on the Notes will be negative. Year-on-year inflation reached 10.4% in March 2022.⁷

Risk of relevant clearing/settlement system

There is a risk that the clearing/settlement system of the SCSD or subsequent records of international central depositories such as Euroclear or Clearstream, or links between them, will become dysfunctional for technical or regulatory reasons, for example also in the event of changes in legislation or depository internal procedures. The Issuer has no influence on such an event, but problems with the settlement or restriction of the possibility of holding the Notes through international central depositories may have a negative impact on the price of the Notes and may also result in no settlement of the trades in the Notes.

while simultaneously improving the sustainability impact of the business activities. To achieve this, RBI has become an official Signatory of the UN Principles for Responsible Banking – a single framework for a sustainable banking industry developed through an innovative partnership between banks worldwide and United Nations Environment's Finance Initiative. The Issuer plans to continue the development of digital channels built on achieving exceptional client experience and aims to further simplify the processes and tasks associated with the personal or corporate financial management. However, there are solutions planned in the pipeline, for instance, in the retail segment, the Issuer plans to take the current account use to a completely new level of experience. The change in circumstances that has affected the world economy and people's daily lives because of measures taken to limit the spread of COVID-19 and vaccination of the population may cause long-term uncertainty about the prospects for the Eurozone and Slovakia, which may have an adverse effect on the Issuer.

Except as stated above, there are no other known trends, uncertainties, requirements, liabilities or events that could reasonably be considered to have an impact on the Issuer's prospects in the current financial year.

5. REASONS FOR THE OFFER AND THE USE OF PROCEEDS

Net proceeds from each issue of the Notes will be used to fund general corporate purposes and business activities of the Issuer.

Net proceeds from each issue of the Subordinated Notes will be also used for the strengthening of the Issuer's sources of own funds (Tier 2 capital).

Net proceeds from each issue of MREL Eligible Notes will be also used for the fulfilment of the minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities in accordance with the requirements of banking regulation.

In the case of the Green Notes, the net proceeds will be used to finance or re-finance, in part or in full, new or existing eligible loans providing distinct environmental benefits (the Eligible Green Loans). The Eligible Green Loans can be loans provided by the Issuer or loans and leases provided by the 100% owned subsidiary Tatra-Leasing, s.r.o. in the Slovak Republic as well as in other EU Member States. Further requirements will be stated in the Green Bond Framework, which may be updated from time to time. Sustainalytics reviewed the Issuer's Green Bond Framework and provided its opinion on the robustness and credibility of the Green Bond Framework and the intended use of proceeds in terms of its alignment with the relevant industry standards, including the Green Bond Principles 2018 (as amended from time to time).

The above stated use of proceeds constitute also the reasons for the offer of each relevant issue of the Notes.

6. BASIC INFORMATION ABOUT THE NOTES

The Notes are debt securities that represent the Issuer's obligation to repay their principal amount and any proceeds. The Notes will be issued as Senior Notes, Covered Notes, Subordinated Notes or Senior Non-preferred Notes.

The Senior Notes, Covered Notes, Subordinated Notes or Senior Non-preferred Notes may be issued as the Green Notes.

Senior Notes, Subordinated Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes may be issued as the MREL Eligible Notes.

The Senior Notes, Subordinated Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes may be issued as at the same time as the Green Notes and the MREL Eligible Notes, provided they simultaneously comply with relevant requirements for both categories of the Notes.

The Notes will be issued under the laws of the Slovak Republic, in particular the Bonds Act; as part of the Programme, the Issuer may issue them on a continuous or repeated basis as separate issues; individual issues may also be issued in parts (tranches).

The Notes issued by the Issuer under the Programme will be offered: (i) in the form of a public offering pursuant to Article 2(d) of the Prospectus Regulation in the Slovak Republic, or (ii) in the Slovak Republic or outside it by one or more manners specified in Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation (or in the case of the United Kingdom, pursuant to the corresponding national legislature) which are exempt from the obligation to publish a prospectus, on a syndicated or non-syndicated basis through Dealers and Joint Lead Managers.

The Issuer may but is not obliged to apply for admission of the Notes on the regulated free market of BSSE or on another regulated market in the Member State of the EEA.

6.1 Basic information about the Senior Notes

The details of the notes and their issuance are set out in the Bonds Act and the Securities Act. Senior Notes under the Programme will be issued as senior unsecured notes, which will not be subordinated pursuant to Section 20a of the Bonds Act or secured pursuant to Section 20b of the Bonds Act.

In addition to basic features of notes specified in Section 1 of the Bonds Act, being the right of the Holder to request the payment of outstanding principal amount and the payment of interest as at a certain date, no other special rights are attached to the Senior Notes.

If the Issuer finds itself in a crisis situation under the Resolution Act, including related regulations, the Issuer's obligations under the Senior Notes may be subject to the Issuer's or Group's resolution measures, in particular a bail-in, resulting in liabilities under the Senior Notes changed, terminated or converted into the Issuer's equity instruments. This can result in the Holders losing a part or their whole investment in the Senior Notes.

6.2 Basic information about the Covered Notes

General information

The details of the Covered Notes and their issuance are set out in the Act on Banks and the Bonds Act. The Covered Notes are secured notes the principal amount of which, including the yields on them, is fully covered by assets or other property values in the cover pool, which can only be issued by a bank in the Slovak Republic, and which is designated in its name as "covered note" (in Slovak: krytý dlhopis). The Holders of the Covered Notes have by virtue of law the priority security right over all assets registered in the cover pool, including in the mortgages over the real estate property securing the included mortgage loans.

The Covered Notes can only be issued by a Slovak bank that has a bank license under the Act on Banks and which has obtained prior approval from the NBS to perform activities related to the covered notes programme. The Issuer has obtained such prior approval of the NBS on 20 November 2018.

The cover pool consists of four components: (i) underlying assets (i.e., mortgage loans), (ii) additional assets, (iii) hedging derivatives, and (iv) liquid assets. An asset or property value becomes part of the cover pool by its inclusion in the register of covered notes and is included until it is removed from this register. The cover pool may, pursuant to Section 68(3) of the Act on Banks, be used only to cover the Issuer's obligations to repay the principal amount of the covered notes and their interest proceeds, the estimated obligations and costs of the Issuer related to the covered notes programme (e.g., to the covered notes programme administrator, the payment service agent, etc.) and the obligations of the Issuer arising from hedging derivatives.

The base assets are the Issuer's receivables from mortgage loans with a maturity of no more than 30 years, provided to consumers and secured by pledges over immovable assets that meet the statutory conditions. The base assets are also these pledges over immovable assets. If the value of the pledged property decreases to the amount of the current unpaid principal of the mortgage loan, such Issuer's receivable shall be included in the base assets only up to the amount not exceeding 80% of the value of the pledged property. If the value of the pledged property falls below the unpaid principal, it is not included in the base assets at all. Loans considered to be non-performing under the CRR must be excluded from the cover pool.

Additional assets include deposits with the NBS, the ECB or the central bank of a Member State, ECB debt certificates, cash, treasury bills issued by the Slovak Republic, or debt securities issued by a Member State, deposits with banks, foreign banks and debt securities issued by banks and foreign banks.

The Act on Banks sets out the method of calculating the cover ratio. The cover ratio is the ratio between the value of the cover pool and the sum of the Issuer's obligations and costs arising from the covered notes programme and must be maintained at a level of at least 105%. Property values and assets forming part of the cover pool are registered in the register of covered notes. They cannot be pledged by the Issuer or used to secure its other obligations.

The NBS appoints for each bank that is the issuer of covered notes, a cover notes programme administrator and its deputy supervising the compliance with the statutory conditions in relation to the covered notes programme. The covered notes programme administrator supervises the issue of covered notes in terms of their requirements and coverage under the Act on Banks and informs NBS about any identified deficiencies. The covered notes programme administrator is required to issue a written certificate for each issue of covered notes prior to the issue, that they have the required coverage and that a record is kept in the register of covered notes.

If the Issuer becomes insolvent, the separate bankruptcy estate of the secured creditors, who are the holders of the covered notes, would be composed of the assets constituting the cover pool and registered in the register of covered notes; this separate bankruptcy estate will include in particular the base assets, i.e. receivables from mortgage loans, including pledges over properties serving to secure the receivables from mortgage loans, provided that they have been registered in the register of covered notes and included in the cover pool.

If the Issuer is insolvent, the bankruptcy trustee has several options to deal with the covered notes programme. The bankruptcy trustee may in particular continue to operate the covered notes programme as part of the Issuer's business unless this reduces the overall satisfaction ratio for the holders of the covered notes. If the bankruptcy trustee assesses that it will be more beneficial to the holders of the covered notes, he may attempt to transfer the covered notes programme or its part so that the whole covered notes programme is transferred to another bank or multiple banks. If the bankruptcy trustee fails to secure transferring of the covered notes programme, he is entitled to sell individual receivables from mortgage loans that form part of the cover pool's assets during the business operation. If the capitalisation fails to be achieved in such a way before termination of the operation of the Issuer's business, the bankruptcy trustee may, after fulfilling the statutory conditions and complying with the statutory deadlines, terminate the operation of the covered notes programme as a part of the Issuer's business and enforce an early repayment of obligations corresponding to the receivables that constitute the base assets of the cover pool. Termination of the covered notes programme operation will result in receivables payment falling due under the Covered Notes.

Re-registration of the legacy mortgage bonds

The Covered Notes are issued pursuant to new rules introduced in Slovak law by amendment to the Act on Banks No. 279/2017 Coll. with effect from 1 January 2018 (the AoB Amendment). Under the AoB Amendment, the issuance of mortgage bonds (in Slovak: hypotekárne záložné listy), i.e., notes covered in the manner similar to the Covered Notes under the previous regulation, is no longer possible from 1 January 2018. However the AoB Amendment, specifically Section 122ya(3) of the Act on Banks, allows to include the historic mortgage bonds together with their cover assets into the new covered notes programme by way or their re-registration into the new register of covered notes.

The Issuer used this statutory option and in December 2018 registered nine issues of mortgage bonds in the total volume of the principal amount of EUR 573.8 million into its new register of covered notes. As of 31 December 2021, the volume of outstanding mortgage bonds amounted to the principal amount of EUR 198 mil. Due to the re-registration, the outstanding mortgage bonds are deemed as the covered notes under rules of the Act on Banks, as amended by the AoB Amendment. In addition, the Issuer has registered in the register of covered notes the mortgage loans provided under agreements entered into before 1 January 2018 that serve to cover these issues of mortgage bonds and fulfil the new eligibility criteria under the AoB Amendment.

Statutory publication concerning the Cover Pool and the Covered Notes

The value of outstanding Covered Notes (including outstanding legacy mortgage bonds) is approx. EUR 1.9 billion, out of which three Covered Notes drawdowns in the aggregate principal amount EUR 1.5 billion, due in 2024, 2025 and 2027, are retained by the Issuer in its own books. All issued Covered Notes are admitted to trading on the regulated market of the BSSE. The information regarding the Cover Pool and the Covered Notes is, and will be, published by the Issuer as required under the Act on Banks and other applicable regulation and prevailing practice.

Implementation of the EU Covered Bonds Directive

CBD Implementing Act will enter into force on 8 July 2022. The amendment regulates, in particular, various new classes of the covered notes, cover assets and changes certain aspects of the supervision and transfer of a covered bond programme. Nevertheless, it does not have a significant impact on the Slovak covered bond market as the current Slovak legal framework is already in compliance with the fundamental requirements of the EU Covered Bonds Directive. The amendment expressly states that the Covered Notes issued pursuant to the current legal framework applicable until 8 July 2022 (the Pre-CBD Notes) will continue to be governed by the provisions of the Act on Banks as applied until 8 July 2022, without any additional requirements or actions.

It will be also possible for the Issuer to apply the new regime under the CBD Implementing Act to the Pre-CBD Covered Notes and include such Covered Notes in the continuing covered notes programme governed by the CBD Implementing Act. The Pre-CBD Covered Notes will be then treated as European Covered Bonds (Premium), covered by assets under Article 129(1)(d) and (f) of CRR. In this case, however, the CBD Implementing Act expressly requires that the cover of such Pre-CBD Covered Notes must be preserved in accordance with provisions of the Act on Banks as applied until 8 July 2022. All rights of the holders of the Pre-CBD Covered Notes must be preserved or must be more beneficial in case of any such change. Consequently, even if the Issuer decides to include the Pre-CBD Covered Notes in the continuing covered bond programme governed by the CBD Implementing Act, such decision will have no negative impact on any rights of the holders of the Pre-CBD Covered Notes. The Issuer may decide to effect these changes with regard to the Pre-CBD Covered Notes by giving relevant notices until 31 December 2023.

6.3 Basic information about the Subordinated Notes

Subordinated Notes will be issued as subordinated notes under Section §20a of the Bonds Act and they are subject to all limitations under Section §408a of Act No. 513/1991 Coll., the Commercial Code, as amended (the Commercial Code).

In the event of bankruptcy or liquidation of the Issuer, the Issuer's payment obligations under the Subordinated Notes shall, regarding the right to payment, rank after the unsubordinated debtors of the Issuer and before the claims of shareholders, holders of (other) instruments of common equity Tier 1 capital under Article 28 of the CRR, as well as before the claims of holders of instruments of additional Tier 1 capital under Article 52 of the CRR of the Issuer and after claims under any other subordinated obligations of the Issuer expressed under their terms and conditions or applicable law as ranked before Tier 2 instruments. The subordination undertaking relating to all obligations under the Subordinated Notes cannot be altered or terminated in any way. All obligations under the Subordinated Notes are unsecured and no provisions or guarantees increasing the seniority of the subordinated obligations from Notes apply to them, whether from the side of the Issuer, its affiliates or any other person under Article 63 of the CRR.

If the Issuer gets into a crisis situation under the Resolution Act, including related regulations, the obligations of the Issuer from the Subordinated Notes may be subject to measures for resolution of the crisis situation of the Issuer or its Group, mainly to the capitalisation measure, as a result of which the obligations from the Subordinated Notes may be modified, terminated, or converted into registered capital of the Issuer. This can result in the Holders losing a part or their whole investment in the Subordinated Notes.

The Holders do not have the right to set-off their claims under the Subordinated Notes against the claims of the Issuer. According to Section 408a(6) of the Commercial Code, no contractual or statutory set-off is permitted.

6.4 Basic information about the Senior Non-preferred Notes

Senior Non-preferred Notes will be issued as non-preferred, senior and unsecured notes with lower ranking in bankruptcy under Section 180a(2) of the Bankruptcy Act. As such, these Notes have lower ranking and the claims arising out of them will be satisfied in the Issuer's bankruptcy only after satisfaction of the preferred claims from protected and covered deposits (Section 180a(1) of the Bankruptcy Act) as well as all unsecured claims under Section 95(1) of the Bankruptcy Act, which also include claims under the Senior Notes or other current unsecured obligations. On the contrary, the Senior Non-preferred Notes have a higher ranking in the bankruptcy than the Subordinated Notes.

If the Issuer gets into a crisis situation under the Resolution Act, including related regulations, the Issuer's obligations under the Senior Non-preferred Notes may be subject to the Issuer's or Group's resolution measures, in particular a bail-in, resulting in liabilities under the Senior Non-preferred Notes changed, terminated or converted into the Issuer's equity instruments. This can result in the Holders losing a part or their whole investment in the Senior Non-preferred Notes. The Holders do not have the right to set off their claims under the Senior Non-preferred Notes against the Issuer's claims.

6.5 Basic information about the Green Notes

The Green Notes under the Programme will be issued as the Senior Notes, the Covered Notes, the Subordinated Notes or the Senior Non-Preferred Notes. The Green Notes will therefore give the Holders the same rights to performance and order of satisfaction as the Senior Notes, the Covered Notes, the Subordinated Notes or the Senior Non-Preferred Notes, according to their status.

Distinctive feature of the Green Notes is only in the use of proceeds of the issue and certain additional information obligations as set out in the Green Bond Framework or as may be specified in relevant Final Terms.

The Green Notes will finance or re-finance, in part or in full, new or existing Eligible Green Loans. The Eligible Green Loans can be loans provided by the Issuer or loans and leases provided by the 100% owned subsidiary Tatra-Leasing, s.r.o. in the Slovak Republic as well as in other EU Member States. Further requirements will be stated in the Green Bond Framework of the Issuer, which may be updated from time to time. The Green Bond Framework will provide more detailed information on the selection, assessment and monitoring of projects and assets eligible for financing by the Green Notes. The Issuer disclosed the Green Bond Framework in the special sections on its website <https://www.tatrabanka.sk/sk/o-banke/financne-ukazovatele/zelene/> and at <https://www.tatrabanka.sk/en/about-bank/economic-results/green/>. Sustainalytics provided a second party opinion on the Green Bond Framework. Sustainalytics evaluated the robustness and credibility of the Green Bond Framework and the intended use of proceeds in terms of its alignment with the relevant industry standards, including the Green Bond Principles 2018 (as amended from time to time).

6.6 Basic information about the MREL Eligible Notes

The MREL Eligible Notes under the Programme will be issued as the Senior Notes, the Subordinated Notes or the Senior Non-Preferred Notes. The MREL Eligible Notes will therefore give the Holders the same rights to performance and order of satisfaction as the Senior Notes, the Subordinated Notes or the Senior Non-Preferred Notes, according to their status.

The MREL Eligible Notes will be issued primarily with the intention of meeting the minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities (MREL) pursuant to Section 31 et seq. of the Resolution Act and any related provisions of the CRR or other legal regulations at the time of their issuance. As such, they exclude the right of set-off and limit the possibility of early redemption and repurchase.

Distinctive feature of the MREL Eligible Notes is in the use of proceeds of the issue, excluded right of set-off and limitations concerning the early redemption and repurchase of such Notes.

4. Status of obligations

[Status of obligations – selection of option – in the case of the Senior Notes it shall be stated: [Obligations from the Senior Notes constitute direct, general, unsecured, unconditional and unsubordinated liabilities of the Issuer which rank pari passu among themselves and always rank at least pari passu with any other direct, general, unsecured, unconditional and unsubordinated liabilities of the Issuer, present and future, save for those obligations of the Issuer as may be stipulated by mandatory provisions of law. Each Holder acknowledges and explicitly agrees that if the Issuer gets into a crisis situation under Act No. 371/2014 Coll. on the resolution of crisis situations on the financial market, as amended, including related regulations, the obligations of the Issuer from the Senior Notes may be subject to measures for resolution of the crisis situation of the Issuer or its group, mainly to the capitalisation measure, as a result of which the obligations from the Senior Notes may be modified or terminated, or converted into registered capital of the Issuer. This can result in the Holders losing a part or their whole investment in the Senior Notes.]

or in the case of the Covered Notes it shall be stated: [Obligations from the Covered Notes constitute direct, general, secured (covered), unconditional and unsubordinated liabilities of the Issuer which rank pari passu among themselves and always rank at least pari passu with any other direct, general, similarly secured (covered), unconditional and unsubordinated liabilities of the Issuer, present and future, save for those obligations of the Issuer as may be stipulated by mandatory provisions of law.]

or in the case of the Subordinated Notes it shall be stated: [Obligations from the Subordinated Notes constitute direct, general, unsecured, unconditional and subordinated liabilities of the Issuer which rank pari passu among themselves and always rank at least pari passu with any other direct, general, unsecured, unconditional and subordinated liabilities of the Issuer, present and future, save for those obligations of the Issuer as may be stipulated by mandatory provisions of law. The Subordinated Notes are subordinated notes under Section 20a of the Bonds Act, and they are subject to all limitations under Section 408a of Act No. 513/1991 Coll., the Commercial Code, as amended (the Commercial Code). By subscribing, purchasing or otherwise acquiring any Subordinated Notes, each Holder agrees with this subordination undertaking and related limitations. In the event of bankruptcy or liquidation of the Issuer, the Issuer's payment obligations under the Subordinated Notes shall, regarding the right to payment, rank after the claims of unsubordinated creditors of the Issuer and before the claims of shareholders, claims of holders of (other) instruments of common equity Tier 1 capital under Article 28 of the CRR, as well as before the claims of holders of instruments of additional Tier 1 capital under Article 52 of the CRR of the Issuer and after claims under any other subordinated obligations of the Issuer expressed under their terms and conditions or applicable law as ranked before Tier 2 instruments. The subordination undertaking relating to all obligations under the Subordinated Notes cannot be altered or terminated in any way. All obligations under the Subordinated Notes are unsecured and no provisions or guarantees increasing the seniority of the subordinated obligations from Notes apply to them, whether from the side of the Issuer, its related parties or any other person under Article 63 of the CRR. Each Holder acknowledges and explicitly agrees that if the Issuer gets into a crisis situation under Act No. 371/2014 Coll. on the resolution of crisis situations on the financial market, as amended, including related regulations, the obligations of the Issuer from the Subordinated Notes may be subject to measures for resolution of the crisis situation of the Issuer or its group, mainly to the capitalisation measure, as a result of which the obligations from the Subordinated Notes may be modified or terminated, or converted into registered capital of the Issuer. This can result in the Holders losing a part or their whole investment in the Subordinated Notes. The Holders do not have the right to set-off their claims under the Subordinated Notes against the Issuer and at the same time the Issuer does not have the right to set-off its claims against the claims of the Holders under the Subordinated Notes. In accordance with Section 408a (6) of the Commercial Code, no contractual or statutory set-off is permitted.]

or in case of the Senior Non-preferred Notes it shall be stated: [Obligations from the Senior Non-preferred Notes constitute direct, general, unsecured and unconditional obligations of the Issuer with a lower ranking in bankruptcy under Section 180a(2) of Act No. 7/2005 Coll. on Bankruptcy and Restructuring, as amended, which rank pari passu among themselves and always rank at least pari passu with any other direct, general, unsecured and unconditional obligations of the Issuer with the same ranking in bankruptcy of the Issuer, present and future, save for those obligations of the Issuer as may be stipulated by mandatory provisions of law. Claims under the Senior Non-preferred Notes are subordinated to other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, but under any circumstances are superior to the Tier 2 instruments under Article 63 of the CRR. Each Holder acknowledges and explicitly agrees that if the Issuer gets into a crisis situation under Act No. 371/2014 Coll. on the resolution on the financial market, as amended, including related regulations, the obligations of the Issuer from the Senior Non-preferred Notes may be subject to measures for resolution of the crisis situation of the Issuer or its group, mainly to the capitalisation measure, as a result of which the obligations from the Senior Non-preferred Notes may be modified or terminated, or converted into the registered capital of the Issuer. This can result in the Holders losing a part or their entire investment in the Senior Non-preferred Notes.]

and in case of Senior Notes and Senior Non-preferred Notes, which are MREL Eligible Notes, it shall be stated: [The Holders do not have the right to set-off their claims under the Notes against the Issuer and at the same time the Issuer does not have the right to set-off its claims against the Holders under the Notes.]

5. Representations and undertakings of the Issuer

and further for the Notes under this paragraph (e):

- in the case of the Notes where, in the case of the Second Interest Rate, the amount of the Margin may vary, it must be stated:

(the Floor Interest Rate) for the given Interest Period. If the Floor Interest Rate is applied in accordance with the previous sentence, the term Interest Rate will be interpreted as the Floor Interest Rate for the purposes of the Terms and

- 6.2 Yield to Maturity as at the Issue Date amounts to: [Yield to Maturity]. Interest on the Notes will be always paid [Interest Payment Frequency] (on) [Interest Payment Date(s)] of the relevant calendar year (each a Payment Date) in compliance with clause 8.

Interest on the Notes will be paid to the Holders for each Interest Period retrospectively, for the first time on [First Interest Payment Date].

For the purposes of the Terms and Conditions, the Interest Period shall mean the period commencing on the Issue Date (inclusive) and ending on the first Payment Date (exclusive) and subsequently each successive period commencing on the Payment Date (inclusive) and ending on the next successive Payment Date (exclusive) until (a) the Principal Amount Maturity Date (exclusive) or until (b) the Early Maturity Date (exclusive) if the Notes are redeemed early.

Interest on the Notes shall be calculated according to the convention [Convention] (as defined below).

- 6.3 The amount of interest payable to each Holder shall be calculated (a) as the product of the total Principal Amount held by the relevant Holder and the Interest Rate (expressed as a decimal number), (b) by subsequent multiplication of this amount by the relevant fraction of days calculated in accordance with the convention specified in the preceding sentence, and (c) by rounding the resulting value to two decimal places, with the value of 0.005 being rounded up. The same procedure shall be used also for calculation of the aliquot accrued interest.
- 6.4 The Notes will cease to bear interest as of the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date (if the Notes are redeemed early), provided that the Principal Amount has as of this date been repaid. If the Principal Amount is not fully repaid as of the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date (if the Notes are redeemed early) due to the Issuer's fault, the Notes will continue to bear interest at the Interest Rate until all due amounts in respect of the Notes have been paid.
- 6.5 For the purposes of the Terms and Conditions, "Reference Rate" means the interest rate expressed as the percentage p.a. displayed on [Screen Page] (or any substitute screen page displaying such information) as [Relevant value – [the value of the fixing of the interest rates for sale on the interbank market for deposits for the relevant currency for the relevant period [Relevant Value Detailed Specification]] or [the value of mid-swap interest rate (the average of bid and offer swap rate) for the fixed part of swap transaction, where the fixed rate is changed into a floating rate in the relevant currency for the relevant period [Relevant Value Detailed Specification]] or [Not applicable.]]. Information/data regarding the past performance, current value as well as the volatility of the Reference Rate can also be obtained on the Screen Page.
- 6.6 If – except for the Interruption Event (as defined below) – the relevant Screen Page is not available or if the rate does not appear in the relevant time, the Issuer will request each of the Reference Banks (as defined below) to provide a rate for the Reference Rate of approximately 11:00 a.m. for the relevant Reference Rate Setting Date. If such rates are provided by two or more Reference Banks, the Reference Rate for the relevant period will be the arithmetic average of such rates (rounded to the nearest thousandth of a percentage point according to the arithmetic rules, if necessary). If such rates are provided by only one or none of the Reference Banks, the Reference Rate will be determined by the Issuer as the arithmetic average (rounded to the nearest one thousandth of a percentage point according to the arithmetic rules, if applicable) of the rates reported to the Issuer by the Reference Banks, or any two or more of them, as the rates at which major banks on the interbank market in the Eurozone offered them at around 11:00 a.m. on the relevant Reference Rate Setting Date deposits in the Currency for the relevant Interest Period. If the Reference Interest Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the preceding paragraphs, the Issuer shall determine the Reference Rate at its own discretion.

Reference Banks means at least four major banks in the Eurozone interbank market.

6.7 If the Issuer at its reasonable discretion determines that (a) it becomes illegal for the Issuer to use the Reference Rate, or (b) the Reference Rate administrator ceases to calculate and publish the Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely, or (c) the Reference Rate administrator becomes insolvent, is under restructuring or becomes subject to any similar proceedings (affecting the administrator) initiated by the administrator or its supervisory or regulatory authority, or (d) the Reference Rate is otherwise interrupted or otherwise ceases to be provided (each of the events referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) an Interruption Event), the Reference Rate shall be replaced by the rate determined by the Issuer (the Substitute Reference Rate) in accordance with the following paragraphs in order (a) to (d):

- (a) The Reference Rate shall be replaced by a reference rate determined by any applicable law or regulation or notified by the Reference Rate administrator, the relevant Central Bank or supervisory authority or the regulatory authority as the substitute interest rate for the Reference Interest Rate, provided the Issuer has access to the source of such determination. The Issuer shall provide this information to the Holders as soon as possible in accordance with clause 14. In this case, the Issuer is not subject to any other disclosure obligations in connection with such Substitute Reference Rate or any adjustments or changes made in connection therewith.
- (b) The Substitute Reference Rate shall be determined by the Independent Advisor's discretion as the rate most comparable to the Reference Rate, and if the Independent Advisor finds that there is a reference rate accepted in the industry as comparable to the Reference Rate, then the Independent Advisor will use such reference interest rate as the Substitute Reference Rate and determine which screen page or source to use in connection with this Substitute Reference Rate (the Substitute Screen Page). The Independent Advisor shall inform the Issuer and the Administrator of such determinations. The Issuer shall provide this information to the Holders without undue delay in accordance with clause 14.
- (c) In addition to replacing the Reference Rate with the Substitute Reference Rate under paragraphs (a) or (b) above, the Issuer (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) may state (i) the factor adjusting the interest rate or fraction or margin (which is added or deducted) to be applied to the Substitute Reference Rate for the purpose of achieving a result, consistent with the economic substance of the Reference Rate prior to the occurrence of the Interruption Event, and (ii) any other changes necessary to determine the Interest Rate or other payments to comply with market practice in relation to the Substitute Reference Rate (for example, Convention, business days, Interest Rate Setting Dates, method of calculating the amount of interest). The Issuer shall provide this information to the Holders without undue delay in accordance with clause 14.
- (d) If the Substitute Screen Page determined in accordance with paragraph (b) is not accessible to the Issuer or if the Independent Advisor does not determine a Substitute Reference Rate or if the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Advisor even after reasonable efforts, the deadline for determining the Substitute Reference Rate under the above paragraphs was insufficient, the Issuer shall decide, at its reasonable discretion, but not earlier than three business days before the Reference Rate Setting Date, that:

- (i) the Reference Rate will be the rate displayed on the Screen Page on the last day preceding the relevant Reference Rate Setting Date, when this rate was stated, and informs the Holders about it without undue delay in accordance with clause 14; or
- (ii) it redeems all (not just some) Notes early with the notice of early redemption being provided at least 30 days in advance in accordance with clause 14; clause 7.3 shall apply mutatis mutandis. [Further information on early redemption if it is impossible to determine the Substitute Reference Rate]

Independent Advisor means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial advisor with relevant professional expertise appointed by the Issuer at its own expense.

6.8 Convention means for the purposes of the Terms and Conditions one of the following conventions for the calculation of interest:

- (a) 30E/360 which, for the purposes of the calculation, means that a calendar year has 360 days divided into 12 months, and each month has 30 days;
- (b) Act/360 which, for the purposes of the calculation, means that a calendar year has 360 days; however, the actual number of days lapsed in the relevant Interest Period is taken into consideration, i.e., the same convention as for the Reference Rate is used;
- (c) Act/Act (AFB) which, for the purposes of the calculation, means that the denominator is either 366 (if the Interest Period includes 29th February) or 365 (if it is any other Interest Period even within a leap year);
- (d) Act/Act (ISDA) which, for the purposes of the calculation, means the actual number of days from the beginning of the Interest Period to the day of the relevant calculation divided by 365 (or if any part of the period for which the interest income is determined falls within a leap year, the sum of (i) the actual number of days in that part of the period for which the interest income is determined, which falls within the leap year, divided by the number 366, and (ii) the actual number of days in that part of the period for which the interest income is determined, which falls into the non-leap year, divided by the number 365).

6.9 The calculation of interest on the Notes by the Issuer will be final and binding for all Holders, except for a manifest error.

7. Maturity of the Notes

7.1 Unless the Notes are redeemed earlier or repurchased by the Issuer and thus cease to exist, as defined below, the Principal Amount [Method of Redemption] shall be repaid on [Maturity Date] (the Principal Amount Maturity Date).

7.2 [Repurchase – [The Issuer has the right to purchase any of the Notes on the secondary market at any market price any time prior to the Principal Amount Maturity Date.] or [in the case of Subordinated Notes included in Tier 2 capital of the Issuer: The Issuer may buy back all or only some of the Notes only if the conditions under Articles 63, 77, 78 and related provisions of the CRR have been satisfied, and the authorisation of the competent supervisory authority has been obtained.] or [in the case of MREL Eligible Notes: The Issuer may buy back all or only some of the Notes only if the conditions under the requirements of the CRR applicable and effective at that time applicable to the eligible liabilities and their buy-back are satisfied, and the authorisation of the competent resolution or supervisory authority has been obtained. [The Issuer may also buy back all or some of the Notes with the remaining maturity of less than one year provided that they are not included in the minimum requirement for eligible liabilities due to this shorter maturity.]]

The Notes acquired by the Issuer will not cease to exist and the Issuer may keep and resell them. 7.6 The Holders of the Notes are under no circumstances entitled to require the Issuer to redeem the Notes early, prior to Principal Amount Maturity Date.

8. Payment terms and conditions

8.1 The Issuer undertakes to pay the Holders the interest from the Notes and repay the Principal Amount in the Currency. The interest from the Notes and the Principal Amount shall be paid to the Holder in accordance with the tax, foreign exchange and other applicable Slovak legal regulations effective on the date of the relevant payment.

8.2 Payment of the interest from the Notes will be made as of the Payment Date and the repayment of the Principal Amount will be made as of the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date (if the Notes are redeemed early) in accordance with the Terms and Conditions, through the Issuer and/or the Administrator (as defined below) of the issue of the Notes at its registered seat (the Payment Venue).

8.3 The interest from the Notes and the Principal Amount shall be paid to persons who will prove to be the Holders according to the current register of Notes held by the Central Depository or a Central Depository member or a person registering a Holder for the Notes registered on the holding account held for such a person by the Central Depository at the close of business hours of the Central Depository on the relevant Determination Date (as defined below) (the Authorised Person).

8.4 For the purposes of the Terms and Conditions, the Determination Date means:

(a) for the purposes of the payment of interest from the Notes, the 15th calendar day prior to the Payment Date (exclusive), or

(b) for the purposes of the payment of the Principal Amount:

(i) the 15th calendar day prior to the Principal Amount Maturity Date (exclusive); or

(ii) the 15th calendar day prior to the Early Maturity Date.

8.5 The Issuer shall make the payment of interest from the Notes and the Principal Amount to the Authorised Persons via wire transfer to their accounts held at the bank, foreign bank or a branch of the foreign bank, which the Authorised Person shall notify to the Issuer in a manner satisfactorily certain and acceptable for the Issuer no later than five business days prior to the Payment Date or the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date.

8.6 The form and content of the instruction must satisfy the reasonable requirements of the Issuer, and the Issuer will be entitled to request sufficiently satisfactory evidence that a person who has signed the instruction is authorised to do so on behalf of the Authorised Person. Such evidence must also be delivered to the Issuer no later than five business days prior to the Payment Date/Principal Amount Maturity Date/Early Maturity Date (as applicable). In particular, the Issuer will be entitled to request any Authorised Person to deliver an officially certified power of attorney if the Authorised Person acts through a representative.

Despite the Issuer's rights under the preceding sentence, the Issuer will not (a) be obliged to verify the authenticity of the instruction according to this clause, or (b) be liable for any damage incurred in relation to any delay resulting from the delivery of incorrect, out-of-date and/or incomplete instruction, or (c) be liable for any damage incurred in connection with the verification of the instruction or any other information or documents pursuant to this clause. In these cases, the Authorised Person shall not be entitled to any additional payment or interest for the caused delay or the delay of the relevant payment.

- 8.7 If the Issuer, in reasonable time after the Payment Date, the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date (as the case may be) cannot pay any amount due in relation to the Notes due to delays caused by the Authorised Person, failure to provide a proper instruction or for other reasons on the part of the Authorised Person (e.g. in case of his/her death), the Issuer may, without prejudice to its authorisation pursuant to Section 568 of Act No. 40/1964 Coll. the Civil Code, as amended, deposit the due amount at the expense of the Authorised Person (or his/her legal successor) at his discretion either into notarial custody or keep the due amount itself. By depositing the due amount into custody (notarial or its own), the Issuer's obligation for payment of such amount is deemed to have been satisfied and the Authorised Person (or his/her legal successor) shall in such case not be entitled to any additional payment, interest or other proceeds in connection with the safekeeping and later payment of the amount.
- 8.8 For the purposes of the Terms and Conditions, a business day means a day on which commercial banks in city [Financial Centre] are normally open for business and the TARGET 2 system (Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer System) is open for settling transactions except for a Saturday, Sunday and any other day which is considered a public holiday in the Slovak Republic. If the Payment Date, the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date falls on a day other than a business day, the Payment Date, the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date will be deemed to fall on the next business day, provided that in this case no additional interest or other additional amounts will accrue on the Notes.

9. Administrator

- 9.1 The activities of the administrator related to the payment of interest income, redemption of the Notes and calculations related to the determination of income shall be provided by the Issuer.
- 9.2 The Issuer reserves the right to designate at any time another or additional Payment Venue or to appoint one or more administrators (the Administrator) in relation to one or several issues or only in relation to this activity in some countries. The Administrator can only be a bank, a branch of a foreign bank, or another person with the required authorisation to do so. If the Issuer appoints an Administrator, it shall enter into an agreement with such Administrator (the Administration Agreement) which will regulate the rights and obligations of the Issuer and the Administrator to ensure that all of the rights and obligations of the Issuer under the Terms and Conditions, the Bonds Act, the Act on Banks, the Securities Act and any other applicable legal regulations are performed. The provisions of the Terms and Conditions concerning making payments and other administrative functions applicable to the Issuer shall apply to the Administrator mutatis mutandis. The changes to the Administrator and the Payment Venue shall be deemed to be the changes of the Payment Venue. The changes must not be substantially detrimental to the Holders. The Issuer shall notify the Holders of its decision to appoint the Administrator. Any such change shall become effective after the end of a 15-day period after the date of the notice, unless a later effective date is specified in the notice. However, any change which would otherwise become effective less than 30 days prior to or after the Payment Date of any amount in relation to the Notes, shall become effective on the thirtieth day after such Payment Date.
- 9.3 The Administrator (if appointed) acts as the Issuer's representative in relation to the performance of the obligations arising from the Administration Agreement and unless the Administration Agreement or the law provides otherwise, it has no legal relationship with the Holders. The Administrator shall not guarantee the Issuer's obligations under the Notes or secure them in any other manner.
- 9.4 The Issuer and the Administrator may, without the consent of the Holders, agree on (a) any change of any provision of the Administration Agreement if such change is exclusively of a formal, secondary or technical nature or if it is made in order to correct a manifest error or required due to changes in legal regulations; and (b) any other change and waiver of claims arising from any breach of any provision of the Administration Agreement which, in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer and the Administrator, will not be detrimental to the Holders.

10. Taxation

The payments of the Principal Amount and interest from the Notes are subject to withholding tax, levies or other charges if required by the legal regulations of any relevant jurisdiction applicable as at the date of their payment.

[Gross-up – [The Issuer will not be obliged to pay any additional sums to the recipient for the reimbursement of these withholdings, taxes, levies or charges.] or [If such withholding or deduction is required by the laws of the Slovak Republic, the Issuer will pay such additional amounts to the Holders as will be necessary so that the net amount of the principal or interest received by the Holders after such withholding or deduction will equal the respective amounts which would otherwise have been received in respect of the Notes in the absence of such withholding or deduction (the Additional Amounts). However, no such Additional Amounts will be payable on account of any withheld or deducted tax which:

- (a) is payable by any person (including the Issuer) acting as custodian bank or collecting agent on behalf of a Holder, or by the Issuer if no custodian bank or collecting agent is appointed or otherwise in any manner, and under the law it does not constitute a payment of tax by way of withholding or deduction by the Issuer as tax payer;
- (b) is payable by reason of the Holder having, or having had tax residency, permanent establishment or any other personal or business connection with the Slovak Republic;
- (c) is withheld or deducted pursuant to: (i) any European Union directive or other legal instrument of the Union law concerning the taxation of distributions or income; or (ii) any international treaty relating to such taxation (e.g. treaty implementing FATCA) and to which the Slovak Republic or the European Union is a party; or (iii) any provision of law implementing, or complying with, such directive, legal instrument or treaty; or
- (d) is payable by reason of a change in law that becomes effective more than 30 days after the relevant payment in respect of the Notes becomes due; or
- (e) would not be payable if the Holder or the actual beneficiary in respect of the Notes would provide a certificate of residence, certificate of exemption or any other similar documents required according to the respective applicable regulations.

[Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this provision, no additional amounts shall be paid where such withholding or deduction is required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any interpretations thereof or law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto or an agreement between the United States of America and the Slovak Republic to implement FATCA or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such agreement.]]

11. Limitation Period

Any rights arising from the Notes shall become time-barred after the lapse of the ten-year period from (a) the relevant Payment Date or the Early Maturity Date (if the Notes are redeemed early), as applicable, in the case of the right to claim an interest payment; or (b) the Principal Amount Maturity Date or the Early Maturity Date, as applicable, in the case of the right to claim the payment of the Principal Amount of the Note and accrued interest (if applicable); and (c) the first day on which such right could have been enforced under the law, in the case of any other right as the ones mentioned above as these may be amended pursuant to the applicable legal regulations.

12. Unilateral changes of the Terms and Conditions

The Issuer may unilaterally change the Terms and Conditions only if such change is a correction of an inaccuracy in the provisions of the Terms and Conditions, a change of the designation of the Issuer or the Payment Venue, unless the Bonds Act or a special law require otherwise.

13. Meeting of the Holders of the Notes13.1 The request to convene a Meeting

Any Holders whose principal amount is at least 10% of the total aggregate principal amount of the issued and outstanding Notes of a given issue has the right to request the convening of the Meeting of the Holders of the Notes in respect of such an issue (the Meeting). The Holders who have requested a Meeting are required to submit an extract from the records demonstrating that they are Holders pursuant to clause 3.1 as of the date of signing of the request along with the request to convene the Meeting.

The request to convene a Meeting may be withdrawn by the relevant Holders, but only if such withdrawal is received by the Issuer and, if appointed, also by each Administrator, no later than three business days before the Meeting. Withdrawal of the request to convene a Meeting does not affect any other request to convene a Meeting by other Holders. If the Meeting does not take place solely due to the withdrawal of the request to convene the Meeting, the Holders shall jointly and severally reimburse to the Issuer the costs incurred so far for the preparation of the Meeting.

The Issuer is entitled to convene the Meeting at any time and is obliged to convene the Meeting without undue delay if it is in delay with the satisfaction of the rights attached to the Notes.

13.2 Convening of the Meeting

The Issuer is obliged to promptly convene the Meeting within ten business days of the receipt of the request to convene the Meeting.

The costs of organising and convening the Meeting shall be borne by the Issuer, unless stated otherwise. However, the Issuer has the right to demand reimbursement of the costs of convening the Meeting from the Holders who have filed the Request to convene the Meeting without serious cause, especially if the Issuer duly fulfils the obligations arising from the Terms and Conditions. The costs associated with attending the Meeting are covered by each participant himself.

Each Holder who has been registered as a Holder of the Notes pursuant to clause 3.1, except for the Issuer itself and any person controlled by the Issuer, on the seventh day prior to the day of the relevant Meeting (the Date of Record for Attending the Meeting) is entitled to participate and vote at the Meeting (the Person Entitled to Attend the Meeting). After the end of the Meeting, the Chairman of the Meeting shall hand the power of attorney over to the Issuer's custody.

(b) Voting right

The Person Entitled to Attend the Meeting has as many votes out of the total number of the votes that corresponds to the ratio between the principal amount of the Notes it holds as of the Date of Record for Attending the Meeting and the total principal amount of the given Issue which is held by other Persons Entitled to Attend the Meeting attending the Meeting as of the Date of Record for Attending the Meeting.

(d) Adjourning the Meeting

The Chairman of the Meeting shall dissolve the Meeting if a duly convened Meeting does not have a quorum in accordance with the provisions of (a) above after the lapse of 60 minutes after the time specified for the beginning of the Meeting. In such case, the Issuer is obliged to convene a replacement Meeting so that it takes place no sooner than two weeks and no later than three weeks from the date on which the original Meeting was convened. The replacement Meeting shall be announced in the manner set out in clause 13.3. The new Meeting shall resolve and decide under the same terms and in the same manner as the dissolved Meeting.

(e) Minutes of the Meeting

The course of every Meeting (including, but not limited to) (i) the agenda of the Meeting (ii) the individual resolutions adopted by the Meeting and (iii) the results of the votes at the Meeting on individual resolutions) will be recorded in a notarial deed prepared at the Meeting; one copy will be prepared by the attending notary for the Issuer and one for the Administrator, if appointed. Minutes that are duly deposited with the Issuer and the Administrator are considered evidence of the facts contained in such minutes and, unless proven otherwise, are considered proof that the Meeting recorded has been duly convened and/or held, and that all resolutions of such Meeting were adopted subject to all conditions and requirements for their adoption in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. - (iv) in the event of failure to comply with the condition under (iii) above, the Chairman of the Meeting shall be entitled to terminate the participation of the relevant person in the Meeting by interrupting the connection, in which case the relevant Person Entitled to Attend the Meeting shall be deemed absent from the Meeting;

- (v) in the event of any technical failure or other event giving rise to the termination of the video and/or audio connection between the Meeting and the Person Entitled to Attend the Meeting, such person shall be deemed to be absent from such moment;
- (vi) no Person Entitled to Attend the Meeting whose participation in the Meeting has been terminated under (iv) or (v) above shall have the right to resume his/her participation in that Meeting by re-connecting to the Meeting through electronic means of distance communication; the above shall not apply if the relevant connection was interrupted solely for reasons on the part of the Issuer; in such a case, the Issuer shall allow the relevant Person Entitled to Attend the Meeting to re-establish video and audio contact with the Meeting;

9. DISTRIBUTION AND SELLING RESTRICTIONS

9.1 Restrictions in the distribution of the Prospectus and offering of the Notes

The distribution of the Prospectus and the offering, sale and purchase of the Notes in certain jurisdictions is restricted by law. The Notes have not been and will not be registered, permitted or approved by any administrative or other authority of any jurisdiction other than the approval of the Prospectus by the NBS. The Issuer may, at any time after the Prospectus has been approved, request the NBS to notify the approval of the Prospectus to the competent authority of another Member State of the EEA, but only for the purposes of admission of the Programme or Notes for trading on a regulated market in that other Member State.

Therefore, the Notes may only be offered in a jurisdiction other than the Slovak Republic if the legal regulations of this other jurisdiction do not require the approval or notification of the Prospectus and also subject to the compliance with any and all requirements pursuant to the legal regulations of such other jurisdiction.

In particular, the Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933; as a result, they may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to US residents, except pursuant to an exemption from or in a transaction not subject to such registration requirements pursuant to the above-mentioned law.

Persons who obtain possession of the Prospectus are required to become acquainted with and observe any restrictions that may be relevant to them.

The Prospectus itself does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy the Notes in any jurisdiction. Each person acquiring the Notes shall be deemed to declare and agree that (i) such person has understood any and all relevant restrictions related to the offer and sale of the Notes which apply to him/her/it and to the relevant form of offer or sale; (ii) that such person will neither offer for sale nor further sell the Notes without complying with any and all relevant restrictions which apply to such person and the relevant form of offer and sale; and (iii) prior to further offering or selling the Notes, such person will inform the buyers of the fact that further offers or sales of the Notes may be subject to statutory restrictions in different jurisdictions which must be observed.

In addition to above, all acquirers of the Notes are required by the Issuer to comply with the provisions of all applicable legal regulations (including Slovak legal regulations), where they will distribute, make available or otherwise circulate the Prospectus, including any Prospectus Supplements, individual Final Terms or other offering or promotional materials or information related to the Notes, always at their own expense and regardless of whether the Prospectus or Prospectus Supplements, individual Final Terms or other offering or promotional materials or information related to the Notes are in written, electronic or any other form.

The Prospectus has been prepared on the assumption that any offer of the Notes in other Member States of the European Economic Area will be made in compliance with the Prospectus Regulation.

Prohibition of Sales to Retail Investors in the European Economic Area

If the Final Terms in respect of any of the Notes specifies “Prohibition of sales to retail investors in the European Economic Area” as “Applicable”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For the purposes of this provision:

- (a) the expression retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of the following:
 - (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or

 - (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation;

- (b) the expression an offer includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes.

In relation to each Member State of the EEA (each, a Relevant State), each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to the public in that Relevant State except that it may make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Relevant State:

- (a) if the Final Terms in relation to the Notes specify that an offer of those Notes may be made other than pursuant to Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation in that Relevant State (a Public Offer), following the date of publication of a prospectus in relation to such Notes which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant State, provided that any such prospectus has subsequently been completed by final terms contemplating such Public Offer, in accordance with the Prospectus Regulation, in the period beginning and ending on the dates specified in such prospectus or final terms, as applicable, and the Issuer has consented in writing to its use for the purpose of that Public Offer;
- (b) Qualified investors: at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation;
- (c) Fewer than 150 offerees: at any time to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Regulation) subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or
- (d) Other exempt offers: at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation, provided that no such offer of the Notes referred to in paragraphs (b) to (d) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

- (b) the expression an offer includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Prospectus as completed by the final terms in relation thereto to the public in the United Kingdom except that it may make an offer of such Notes to the public in the United Kingdom at any time:

10.1 Taxation in the Slovak Republic

The following summary includes general information regarding current tax and payment matters of the Slovak legal regulations relating to the acquisition, ownership and disposal of the Notes applicable in the Slovak Republic as at the date of this Prospectus and does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of its aspects. The information provided is subject to any changes in the applicable legal regulations that may become effective after the date of this Prospectus. This summary does not describe tax and payment matters under the laws of any other country than the Slovak Republic.

The Holders are recommended to consult the provisions of the applicable legal regulations with their own advisors, in particular as regards tax and foreign exchange regulations and regulations regarding social and health insurance applicable in the Slovak Republic and in the countries of their residence, as well as in countries in which the income from the holding and sale of the Notes may be subject to tax, and implications of their application. The Holders are encouraged to keep themselves informed of any laws and other legal regulations which in particular regulate the holding of the Notes and economic rights to the Notes and the sale and purchase of the Notes on ongoing basis and to comply with these laws and other legal regulations.

The income on the Notes will be taxed pursuant to the law applicable at the time of its payment. Currently, such income is pursuant to Act No. 595/2003 Coll. on Income Tax, as amended (the Income Tax Act), taxed as follows:

- (a) income on the Notes realised by a tax non-resident (the Tax Non-Resident) not engaged in business through a permanent establishment in Slovakia is not subject to income tax in the Slovak Republic;
- (b) income on the Notes realised by a tax resident (the Tax Resident) that is an individual, a taxpayer not incorporated or established for business purposes or the NBS is subject to a 19% income withholding tax;
- (c) income on the Notes realised by a Tax Resident that is a legal entity, forms part of the tax base of such taxpayer and is subject to a corporate income tax at respective rate (21% or 15%);
- (d) income on the Notes realised by a Tax Non-Resident engaged in business through a permanent establishment in Slovakia (to which such income is attributable) forms part of the tax base of such permanent establishment in Slovakia and is subject to income tax at the respective rate for corporations (21% or 15%) or individuals (19%).

The Issuer is liable for the withholding of tax unless the Notes are, as part of custodianship services, held in a custody account of the securities trader; in such a case, the securities trader is liable for withholding the tax. In individual cases, a yield on the Notes may arise to an individual – Tax Resident without the tax from it being subject to tax withholding and the yield is included in the tax base of the individual (e.g. a note sold on the secondary market, under special terms or a yield arising on the maturity of a security calculated from the difference between the principal amount of the security and the issue price on its issue date). The taxpayer not incorporated or established for business purposes or the NBS is liable for the withholding of tax in respect of the income on the Notes realised by this taxpayer not incorporated or established for business purposes or the NBS.

Pursuant to Council Directive 2011/16/EU on administrative cooperation in the field of taxation and repealing Directive 77/799/EEC on automatic exchange of information (DAC2) and pursuant to the agreement entered into between the Slovak Republic and the United States of America to improve compliance with international tax legislation, which were implemented to the Act No. 359/2015 Coll. on automatic exchange of financial account information for purposes of tax administration, the Issuer provides the local tax administrator with selected information about clients from EU Member States and clients from other selected countries, including the USA, for the previous year, annually by 30 June of the relevant year.

Income from sale of the Notes realised by a legal entity being a Slovak Tax Resident or a permanent establishment of a Tax Non-Resident is included in the tax base and is subject to a corporate income tax at respective rate (21% or 15%). In general, losses from the sale of the Notes calculated on a cumulative basis for all Notes sold in an individual tax period are not recognisable for tax purposes, except for specific cases stipulated by law (e.g., loss from the sale of the Notes is recognisable for tax purposes if it is not higher than the yield on the Notes included in the tax base until its sale or maturity).

Income from sale of securities, including the Notes, realised by an individual being a Slovak Tax Resident or a permanent establishment of a Tax Non-Resident is included in the personal income tax base. Any losses from the sale of securities, including the Notes, cannot be treated as recognisable for tax purposes. If an individual has owned Notes admitted to trading on a regulated market for more than one year, income from their sale shall be exempt from income tax, except for income from the sale of the Notes which were the business property of the individual.

Generally, income from the sale of the Notes realised by a Tax Non-Resident coming from a Slovak Tax Resident or a permanent establishment of the Slovak Tax Non-Resident is subject to the applicable income tax rate, unless the international double tax treaty entered into by the Slovak Republic provides otherwise.

In addition, if the income taxable in Slovakia is realised by the resident of the country outside the EU and EEA, such income is subject to tax securement of 19% or 35% (if resident in the country with which the Slovak Republic did not conclude a double tax treaty or tax information exchange agreement or in the country listed in EU list of non-cooperative jurisdictions for tax purposes or in the country not imposing a corporate income tax or imposing a zero corporate income tax). Tax securement shall be made by a taxpayer that makes, remits or credits the payments to the resident of the country outside the EU and EEA. Tax securement is considered as final tax in case the Slovak tax return is not filed.

The income on the Notes for individuals who must have a statutory health insurance in the Slovak Republic is generally not subject to health insurance payments; in special cases, however, yield on the Notes may arise that will be subject to health insurance payments. Each Holder of the Notes must assess its own potential obligations in this area pursuant to the relevant legislation, including the applicable transitional provisions.

10.2 Foreign Exchange Regulation in the Slovak Republic

Issuing and purchasing the Notes in the Slovak Republic is not subject to foreign exchange regulation in the Slovak Republic. Foreign Holders may, subject to certain conditions, purchase funds in foreign currency for Slovak currency (Euro) without foreign exchange restrictions and thus transfer amounts paid by the Issuer from the Notes from the Slovak Republic in foreign currency.

11. GENERAL INFORMATION

- 11.1 Arranger. The Issuer has appointed Raiffeisen Bank International AG as arranger for the Programme.
- 11.2 Dealers of the Programme. The Dealers of the Programme are Raiffeisen Bank International AG and the Issuer. Under the Programme, the Issuer in relation to individual issue of the Notes may appoint other Dealers. RBI or any of the appointed Dealers are not responsible for the information contained in the Prospectus. For retail offers in the Slovak Republic, the Issuer itself will act as a Dealer.
- 11.3 Joint Lead Managers. The Issuer may appoint Dealers or any other financial institutions as Joint Lead Managers for the final placement of the Notes in the Slovak Republic as well as in other Member States of the EEA and the United Kingdom, but always only in one or several manners defined in Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation, when offering the Notes, or in the case of the United Kingdom, pursuant to the corresponding national legislation.
- 11.4 Completeness of the Prospectus. The Prospectus is to be read together with any supplements to the Prospectus as well as documents and information incorporated herein by reference. Comprehensive information regarding the Issuer and the Notes may only be obtained from the combination of the Prospectus (including supplements to the Prospectus and documents and information incorporated by reference) and the relevant Final Terms and Summaries (if prepared).
- 11.5 Approval of information and Prospectus updates. The provision of representations or information relating to the Issuer or the Notes other than those contained herein has not been approved by the Issuer. No other information or representation may be relied upon as having been approved by the Issuer. The submission of the Prospectus at any time does not mean that information contained herein is accurate at any time after the date of this Prospectus. Unless provided otherwise, any and all information contained herein is provided as at the date of this Prospectus. The Prospectus may be updated pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation in the form of a Prospectus Supplement(s) in which the information in the Prospectus will be up to date as at the date stated in Prospectus Supplement(s). Pursuant to the applicable Slovak legal regulations, any Prospectus supplement must be approved by the NBS and subsequently published.
- 11.6 Validity of the Prospectus. With the approval of this Prospectus by the NBS and its publication by the Issuer, the validity of the previous basic prospectus prepared by the Issuer for the Programme ends.
- 11.7 Own assessment by investors. The Notes may not be a suitable investment for prospective investors, and each prospective investor in the Notes must consider (or together with its advisors) the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances and should:
- (a) have sufficient skills and experience to make an appropriate evaluation of the Notes, risks related to them and information contained (or incorporated by reference) in the Prospectus, the Final Terms and in the relevant Summary (if applicable);
 - (b) have knowledge of and access to appropriate analytical tools to evaluate investments in the Notes and be able to evaluate the effect of the investment in the Notes on its financial situation and/or its overall investment portfolio, always in the context of its particular financial situation;
 - (c) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all the risks related to the investment in the Notes, including the potential volatility of the value of the Notes;
 - (d) be aware that if a loan or credit is used to finance the purchase of the Notes, it may happen that the cost of such a loan or credit may exceed the yield earned on the Notes; the potential investor should not presume that they will be able to repay loan or credit and relevant interest from the yield from investment in the Notes;
 - (e) fully understand the relevant terms and conditions of the Notes (including the relevant Final Terms) and be familiar with the functioning of the relevant indices and financial markets; and
 - (f) be able to evaluate (either alone or in cooperation with its financial advisor) possible scenarios of development of the economy, interest rates and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear relevant risks.

- 11.8 Reference rate administrators. Amounts payable on the Notes with a floating interest rate will be calculated with reference to the Reference Rates, for example EURIBOR, as specified in more detail in the relevant Final Terms. At the date of this Prospectus, used Reference Rate administrators are registered in the ESMA register of administrators under Article 36 of Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011.
- 11.9 No investment recommendation. Neither the Prospectus nor any financial information provided in respect of the Programme or the issue of the Notes is intended to provide the basis for any credit or other evaluation of the Issuer or the Notes and may not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer that any recipient of the Prospectus or any financial information regarding the Issuer should buy the Notes. Each potential purchaser of the Notes should evaluate for itself the relevance of the information contained in the Prospectus or any financial information regarding the Issuer, and its purchase of the Notes should be based on any such review as it deems necessary.
- 11.10 Credit rating of the Covered Notes. The Covered Notes are expected to be rated, and such rating, as well as the credit rating agency which has assigned it, will be specified in the Final Terms. The rating cannot be considered a recommendation to purchase, sell or hold the securities and may be subject to suspension, downgrade or withdrawal at any time by the assigning credit rating agency. Whether or not the rating applied for in relation to the relevant issue of the Covered Notes will be assigned by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under the CRA Regulation is disclosed in the Final Terms. ESMA publishes on its website (www.esma.europa.eu) a list of credit rating agencies registered and certified in compliance with the CRA Regulation. The ESMA website is neither incorporated by a reference in nor does form part of the Prospectus. For the sake of completeness, the credit rating assigned to the Covered Notes does not extend to mortgage bonds issued by the Issuer before 1 January 2018, which are deemed to be covered notes under the legislation effective from 1 January 2018.
- 11.11 Credit rating of other Notes. The Issuer may decide to obtain a credit rating for some types or individual issues of the Notes from one or more credit rating agencies established in the European Union and registered under the CRA Regulation. The rating obtained will be set out in the Final Terms. If a credit rating is assigned to any issue of the Senior Notes, Subordinated Notes or Senior Non-preferred Notes in the future, it cannot be considered to constitute a recommendation to purchase, sell or hold the securities and may be subject to suspension, downgrade or withdrawal at any time by the assigning credit rating agency.
- 11.12 Yield to Maturity. The yield to maturity specified in the relevant Final Terms of the relevant issue of the Notes with a fixed interest rate shall be calculated as the internal rate of return of the relevant Notes as at the Issue Date. The internal rate of return is defined as the discount rate in which the current value of all future cash flows from the Notes is equal to the initial investments in them. As set out above, the yield to maturity is calculated as at the Issue Date on the basis of the Issue Price. Such calculation of the yield cannot be deemed as the indication of the actual future yield on the Notes.
- 11.13 Approval of the Programme by the Issuer's bodies. The establishment of the Programme was approved by the Issuer's Board of Directors on 4 February 2019 and the Issuer's Supervisory Board on 19 February 2019. The Issuer's Board of Directors approved on 12 October 2021 and the Issuer's Supervisory Board on 22 November 2021 increasing the aggregate principal amount of the Programme from EUR 3,000,000,000 to EUR 4,000,000,000.
- 11.14 International Central Securities Depositories. The Notes may also be settled and held through international central depositories such as Euroclear or Clearstream, which have direct or indirect links with SCSD. Indirect link is usually maintained through a manager holding the Notes for Euroclear or Clearstream on the holding (custody) account held with the SCSD. Persons holding any Notes in their Euroclear and/or Clearstream accounts may only exercise their rights against the Issuer through Euroclear and/or Clearstream or through the relevant manager holding these Notes for Euroclear and/or Clearstream. In any event, the exercise of these rights will be subject to the Euroclear or Clearstream operating rules and the applicable governing law.
- 11.15 ECB eligibility. Despite the Notes may be settled and held through SCSD, and also through international central depositories such as Euroclear or Clearstream, this does not necessarily mean that the Notes will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue, or at any times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

11.16 Presentation of financial information and rounding. Unless provided otherwise, all financial information of the Issuer is based on the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) or IAS 34 (in the case of interim financial data) as adopted by the EU. Certain values included in the Prospectus have been subject to rounding adjustments. Accordingly, the values given for the same information item presented in different tables may slightly vary and the values given as totals in certain tables may not represent the arithmetic sum of these values

11.17 Third Party Information. In clause 2 of the Prospectus headed “Risk Factors”, the Issuer used publicly available information published on the webpage of the Statistical Office of the Slovak Republic, at <https://slovak.statistics.sk/>.

The Issuer confirms that third party information has been accurately reproduced and to the best knowledge of the Issuer, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

11.18 Expert reports. Except for the information extracted from the audited financial statements of the Issuer, the Prospectus does not contain any audited information and no auditor’s report has been prepared thereon. The Prospectus does not contain any statement or report attributed to a person acting as an expert.

11.19 Publications concerning the Cover Pool and the Covered Notes. The information regarding the Cover Pool and the Covered Notes will be published by the Issuer to the extent required under the Act on Banks and other applicable regulation in separate sections on its website https://www.tatrabanka.sk/sk/o-banke/financne-ukazovatele/#vydane_dlhopisy and in the English language also at https://www.tatrabanka.sk/en/about-bank/economic-results/#issued_bonds. None of the information published by the Issuer pursuant to the preceding sentence is incorporated in the Prospectus by reference or forms a part thereof.

11.20 Green Bond Framework and publications concerning the Green Notes. The Issuer has published its own Green Bond Framework, which will provide more detailed information on the selection, assessment and monitoring of projects and assets eligible for financing by the Green Notes. The Green Bond Framework has been evaluated by Sustainalytics. The Issuer will publish information about the Green Bond Framework and Green Notes in accordance with the applicable legal regulations in separate sections on its website

- (a) https://www.tatrabanka.sk/sk/o-banke/financne-ukazovatele/#vydane_dlhopisy;

- (c) https://www.tatrabanka.sk/en/about-bank/economic-results/#issued_bonds; and
- (d) <https://www.tatrabanka.sk/en/about-bank/economic-results/green/>.

Additional specific information concerning the Green Bond Framework and Green Notes may be specified in the Final Terms. None of the information published by the Issuer pursuant to the preceding sentence is incorporated in the Prospectus by reference or forms a part thereof.

11.21 Language of the Prospectus. The Prospectus has been prepared and will be approved by the NBS in the Slovak language. If the Prospectus is translated into another language, e.g., for notification purposes, the Slovak language version of the Prospectus shall prevail in the case of any interpretation discrepancies between the Prospectus in Slovak and the Prospectus translated into another language.

11.22 Negative pledge, cross-default. The Terms and Conditions of any issue of the Notes do not contain any negative pledge or cross-default clauses.

11.23 Enforcement of private claims against the Issuer. Slovak courts shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of enforcement of any private claims against the Issuer related to the purchase or holding of the Notes. Any and all rights and obligations of the Issuer against the Holders shall be governed by Slovak law. As a result, there is only a limited possibility of claiming rights against the Issuer in proceedings before foreign courts or pursuant to a foreign law. Regulation (EU) No 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of

12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgements in civil and commercial matters (recast) (the Brussels I Recast), is directly applicable in the Slovak Republic. Pursuant to the Brussels I Recast, save for certain exceptions stated therein, judicial decisions issued by judicial bodies in the EU Member States in civil and commercial matters are enforceable in the Slovak Republic, and vice versa, the judicial decisions issued by judicial bodies in the Slovak Republic in civil and commercial matters are enforceable in the EU Member States. If, for the purposes of the recognition and enforcement of a foreign decision the application of the Brussels I Recast is excluded, but the Slovak Republic entered into an international treaty on the recognition and enforcement of court decisions with a certain country, the enforcement of a judicial decision of such country is ensured in accordance with the provisions of the given treaty. If such treaty does not exist, the decisions of foreign courts may be recognised and enforced in the Slovak Republic subject to the terms and conditions set out in Act No. 97/1963 Coll. on Private and Procedural International Law, as amended. Pursuant to this act, decisions of judicial bodies of foreign states in matters set out in the provisions of Section 1 of the Act on Private and Procedural International Law, foreign reconciliations and foreign notarial deeds (for the purposes of this paragraph jointly the foreign decisions), cannot be recognised and enforced if (a) the subject matter of the decision falls within the exclusive jurisdiction of the bodies of the Slovak Republic or the body of a foreign state would not have jurisdiction to decide over the case if the provisions of Slovak law applied to the assessment of its jurisdiction; or (b) they are not valid and effective or enforceable in the state in which they have been issued; (c) they are not decisions on the merits of the case; or (d) a party to the proceeding against whom a decision is to be recognised was deprived of the option to appear before such authority, mainly if it was not served with a summons for a hearing or a statement of claim; the court does not assess whether this condition has been met if a foreign decision has been duly served to such party to the proceeding and the party has not filed an appeal against it or if such a party has declared that it does not insist on the review of such requirement; or if (e) the Slovak court has already decided the case by a valid and effective decision or there is an earlier foreign decision in the same case which has been recognised or meets the requirements for its recognition; or (f) the recognition would be in conflict with the Slovak public order.

This summary contains only general information to describe the legal situation. The relevant legislation is subject to change. The summary does not take into account the individual status of any Holder. Investors should not rely on this information and are recommended to assess the issues regarding the enforcement of private claims against the Issuer with their legal advisors.
