- at least 70% of the loan amount is insured, if the loan amount is equal to or less than EUR 100,000 or at least 50% of the loan amount if the loan amount exceeds EUR 100,000

II. Reporting Period to Grant and Assess Scheme

The bank checks the performance of terms and conditions for granting the benefit:

- First full 3 calendar months after loan provision or after its first partial drawdown and then every 3 following calendar months.

Terms and conditions for Scheme A discount

- The loan will not be more than 15 days in arrears on any repayment or interest payment in the reporting period, and
- At least one of the borrowers will be holder of the product 1 for at least one day in the reporting period, which will meet the terms and conditions for using the given product and the loan will concurrently be repaid from the borrower's account maintained by the bank during the entire reporting period, or
 - The loan will not be more than 15 days in arrears on any repayment or interest payment in the reporting period, and
 - At least one of the borrowers will be insured with the product 2 during the entire reporting period, which will meet the terms and conditions for using such product.

Terms and conditions for Scheme B discount

- The loan will be paid from the borrower's account maintained by the bank during the entire reporting period, and
- The loan will not be more than 15 days in arrears on any repayment or interest payment in the reporting period, and
- At least one of the borrowers will be holder of the product 1 for at least one day in the reporting period, which will meet the terms and conditions for using the given product, and
- At least one of the borrowers will be insured with the product 2 during the entire reporting period, which will meet the terms and conditions for using such product.

The particular discount applied with the Scheme A and Scheme B will be arranged in the loan contract. The Scheme B discount will be granted by the bank once the loan or its first partial drawdown has been provided. After that, the granted discount will be reassessed based on the arranged terms and conditions.

III. Reassessment of Granted Discount

- If it is found in the first reporting period of the assessment of the Scheme terms and conditions, that neither the Scheme A nor Scheme B terms and conditions were met, the bank will apply the interest rate in terms of the arranged contract terms and conditions.
- If meeting the Scheme terms and conditions changes in the following reporting periods, the interest rate attributable to the Scheme A or Scheme B or with no discount (depending on whether the terms and conditions for granting the Scheme A or Scheme B discount are met, or the terms and conditions of none of the Schemes are met) will be applied with effect from the maturity date of the next payment.

The bank may unilaterally determine a modification of the Scheme terms and conditions after the interest rate fixation period expires. The bank will define a new Scheme A and Scheme B discount in a written notice or terminate the Scheme application.

The Scheme will terminate also if the bank, upon a borrower's request, approves or permits:

- complete or partial deferral of loan payments;
- deferral of loan payments in terms of the Act No. 67/2020 Coll. (Lex Corona);
- complete or partial deferral of loan payments by reason of a birth or adoption of a child;
- prolongation of the final loan maturity in connection with a borrower's request in the cases set out herein.
